

POSSIBLE CAPSTONE “PRODUCTS”

All students need to have a “service/product” that lives BEYOND their presentation (also known as ‘artifacts’ within the Capstone Rubric). The final Capstone presentation itself cannot be your ‘product’. The lists below will help you brainstorm what a Capstone product can be...and YES, you can create more than one product! Successful Capstones often have multiple products/services.

1. Presentation/Action Products

- Speech
- Debate
- Oral Defense
- Mock Trial
- News Show
- Panel Discussion
- Play/Dramatic Scenes
- Music, Song, or Dance
- Lesson
- Public Event
- Service to Others
- Idea/Sales Pitch
- Poetry Slam

2. Written Products

- Research Report
- Letter
- Brochure
- Script
- Blog
- Editorial
- Book Review
- Training Manual
- Mathematical/Engineering Analysis
- Scientific Study or Experiment
- Field Guide

3. Media & Technology Products

- Audio Recording/Podcast
- Slideshow
- Drawing/Painting
- Graphic Design
- Collage/Scrapbook
- Photo Essay/Exhibit
- Video/Animation
- Website
- Computer Program/App
- Digital Story/Comic
- Social Media Campaign

4. Constructed Products

- Small Scale Model
- Prototype
- Consumer Product
- Device/Machine
- Vehicle
- Invention
- Scientific Instrument
- Museum Exhibit
- Structure
- Garden/Landscaping

5. Planning Products

- Proposal
- Business Plan
- Project Management Plan
- Design
- Bid
- Estimate
- Blueprint
- Timeline
- Flow Chart