INTRODUCTION

Directing the reader about the importance of the research. Presenting significant problems, a clear state of the art, gap analysis, and novel concepts to fill the gaps. End it with the purpose of research.

METHODS

Clear and replicable. Reveal how the research objectives were achieved with appropriate procedures and stages.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

Presenting data based on the right type of research. Presentation of data can be in the form of narrative, table, or an appropriate picture. Then the data is analyzed by comparing the concepts, theories, or results of previous research.

CONCLUSION

Contains the most important research findings related to the objectives written in the introduction.

REFERENCES

Use at least 15 recent references from international journals (last 10 years) and do not use self-citations. Write references using APA Style
