Strategy Performance reflects the gross returns (no performance or management fees) of an Interactive Brokers account (ending in 8734), managed solely by Walter Arader from January 1, 2025, to the date of this communication. Performance data of the Interactive Brokers account reflects actual results with supporting records available upon request. Arader LP, a hedge fund set to begin trading on July 1, 2025, will employ the same investment strategy under the sole management of Walter Arader. Performance of the Interactive Brokers account may differ materially from Arader LP's future results due to factors including, but not limited to management and performance fees, leverage, liquidity, portfolio size, and hedge fund regulations. Arader LP's returns will be net of fees, which will reduce returns compared to the gross performance shown. Past performance does not guarantee future results. The strategy involves significant risks, including the potential loss of principal, due to factors such as but not limited to market volatility, adverse market conditions, leverage, and concentrated investments. This communication is made pursuant to Rule 506(c) of Regulation D. Arader LP will be available only to accredited investors and will take reasonable steps to verify investor status prior to accepting investments. Investments in Arader LP are not currently being accepted and will commence in June 2025 subject to regulatory approvals. DISCLAIMER: This communication is for informational and educational purposes only and does not constitute financial advice, an offer to sell, or a solicitation to buy securities in jurisdictions where such offer or solicitation is unlawful.
