Father: What did you tell your teachers today?

- Daughter: Weed is not good for you.

Father: And why did you say that?

- Daughter: Because weed is stuff that's like grass but it's not, it's weed.

Father: And did you tell them that we have a lot of weed in our house?

- Daughter: Yeah.

Father: Yeah?

- Daughter: uh huh

Father: Do you want to explain that a little bit?

- Daughter: Yeah

Father: Because when I got to your school the teacher said, "I heard you have a lot of weed at your house."

- Daughter: uh huh

Father: Ok, do you want to explain that?

- Daughter: Uhh nope.

Father: Are we growing weed at our house?

- Daughter: Yeah.

Father: A lot of it?

- Daughter: Yeah.

Father: Ok.

- Daughter: Just a little bit but it's gonna grow a lot.

Father: It's gonna grow a lot and then what do we do with the weed?

- Daughter: We're gonna get it out and then throw it to another place.

Father: Ok, do you wanna, do you wanna maybe show people what you're talking about?

- Daughter: Yeah.

Father: ...that you happen to be telling your teachers at school about? Let's see it. You wanna show us your weed? Is it a secret?

- Daughter: Ok. This is weed. This stuff.

Father: That? That's the weed you're telling all your teachers about?

- Daughter: That's weed. That's weed. That's weed. That's weed. That's weed. That's weed. That's weed...

Father: What do you think we should do about it?
