Backstory:
-(All events in this timeline occur AFTER Endgame, IMO the ending of Agents of SHIELD S7 happens just after endgame)

Alternate Timeline [does not affect aca]
Phillip was born in November 1968 to his parents, though he remembers very little about them, they mostly neglected him which caused him to act out even as a young child, pickpocketing from people.

1971- Phillip's parents owe the Malick family money and are unable to pay, they manage to negotiate and in return for handing them their child, their debts would be wiped. They do this without hesitation

1973- Nathaniel Malick forces Phillip through terrigenesis in his experimental "artificial way" when trying to recreate daisies powers by using daisies inhuman blood, it ends up going badly and not only are phillips powers incredibly weak [he was able to create incredibly mild shock blasts and can sense vibrations around him] but he has no control and Malick quickly discards him "leaving him for death"
He is left in the same cell as Daisy and Sousa. Sousa and Daisy comfort him and promise that they will take him back to shield with them. As Sousa makes his escape and daisy quakes the roof, making it collapse, Phillip is caught under the debris, unable to escape and is abandoned.

1947-1982- Phillip is captured by Malick, who decides instead of killing Phillip to try and use him as he may be useful later. He was often experimented on throughout the 10 years but he is adamant daisy and sousa and shield will come back for him. As the years pass Phillip decided his best shot was to get on Malick's good side and wait for shield to return, eventually, Malick finds use for him, training him to become an assassin to help him capture the afterlife.

1983- Phillip is there on the attack for afterlife, but he immediately betrays malick, due to his now extensive training he has control over what little powers he possesses and Malick's combat training made him a formidable foe. Phillip helps shield return to their original timeline, going with them with the intention to work as Daisys apprentice.

ACA TIMELINE:(he enters this timeline at the age of 15)

-Phillip begins his training with Daisy, however his trauma is making his desire to be Daisy's apprentice more difficult. Daisy decides it is best for his training to quote "Be a kid for a while" and sends him to live with Fitzsimmons who were at the time hosting Newt, the two connect and begin to help eachother heal. Newt learns to trust again and Phillip is allowed to have someone to be vulnerable around. Newt adopts him and they return to shield.

Phillip reunites with Daisy, and the two resume their training, Phillip joining her for her space endeavours with Sousa and Kora.He also meets Nyx and Azarel, and though he isnt too fond of Azarel initially, eventually they become a proper little family. Phillip is especially protective of Nyx

(From this point phillip is 17)

-Phillip returns to Earth when he discovers that Newt has been murdered, grief stricken, he refuses to accept his fathers death. Insisting there is no way he would have been killed so easily on a simple mission, his suspicions are proved correct when Phillip receives a letter in which he knew he was about to die.

-Phillip decides newt was murdered and dedicates himself to finding who it was, he drops out of shield and runs away trying to find a way to become stronger, he ends up meeting a spirit of vengeance and makes a deal with it, to avenge Newt’s death.

-begins looking for the darkhold which attracts the attention of ghost rider who one day confronts him

-Phillip fights ghost rider and actually does a half decent job, that’s when Robbie offers to help Phillip and Phillip agrees

-Newt visits Kamar Tag in looks of answers to the Darkhold and his spirit of vengeance, this is where he meets Milo, although at first he is distrustful, they end up becoming close

-Phillip and Robbie go looking for clues as to who killed Newt, they end up meeting Rory, who reveals to Phillip he watched Newt's death. Phillip is angered by this and steals Rory’s Time Machine bracelet and travels to Newt's death to see Newt killed by Vik, a high ranking shield agent who after Newt's death gained control of shield.

-Phillip returns to shield and infiltrates with his allies, this is where he manages to overthrow Vik and drive her out of shield.

-Phillip finds out Nyx,has been using the darkhold and has been seeing thanos, with the help of Newt’s ghost they manage to close the portal she had constructed for thanos to escape, killing both thanos and newt.

Phillip rejoins shield, acting as director, he begins to repair his relationship with Nyx.

Multiverse of Madness:

Phillip is at kamar taj with Milo during the events of Multiverse of Madness, they both partake in the battle of Kamar Taj against wanda however Milo is killed, Phillip stays with milo, pretending to be dead.

When wanda begins dreamwalking, He is watching, ready to get his revenge, when she takes Wong to the birthplace of the darkhold phillip follows however, unsuspected.

Just as wanda realizes she is in the wrong and goes to sacrifice her, phillip appears and “kills her” [not confirmed] but he does drop the temple on her and destroys the darkholds with robbie

Once Phillip gets his revenge he returns to Milo and gives him the spirit of vengeance so he can live, this greatly weakens Phillip.

Post Multiverse of Madness/Secret Invasion

-Nyx and Phillip go on a mission, only for Nyx to be killed by a perp. This acts as Phillips breaking point

-Fury tries to talk to him, requiring help with the Skrull invasion. However, Phillip rejects him, stating that SHIELD has just been another prison, but a crueler one. Having him care about people just for them to be ripped away from him. And he cannot handle the strain any more. With that he hands his badge over and leaves SHIELD for good.

Phillip basically is just semi retired now, he probs bought a pub or something with that sweet avengers inheritance and does that, beating up the bad guys in his bar. If anyone wants to pull him out of retirement for something tho lmk omg
