

World Poetry Movement (WPM) In the context of the continuation of the heinous crime against the Palestinian people in Gaza, the West Bank, Jerusalem, and all the occupied Palestinian territories, the World Poetry Movement (WPM) condemns indiscriminate killings of civilians, including women and children, journalists, doctors, and humanitarian workers in an act of genocide supported by the major powers that sponsor the occupation. The act of brutality and inhumanity makes an unprecedented appearance through live broadcasts on all global media and is witnessed by the whole world.

Despite the global calls made by peace-loving people in many countries of the world that are demanding an immediate end to the war and have been organizing massive marches, public demonstrations, and public readings in hundreds of

Abdullah Habib (Oman)
November 6, 2023

Please add more names of other poets who support this letter

Mohamed Boutaghan, poet and translator, Algeria

Mouloud Fertouni, poet, Algeria

Mabrouk Baanaoui, poet, Algerianñnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnnn

Abdelkader Rabhi, poet, Algeria

Hadj Boukrani, poet, Algeria

Abdelmalek Herzaoui, poet and researcher, Algeria

Ahcene Douas, poet and translator, Algeria

Ahmed Abdelkrim, writer, Algeria

Mamang Dai, poet, India

Yuri Patiño (Venezuela)

Oumaima Ahmed Abou Ismail Algeria

Sulma Montero, artista multidisciplinar

, Bolivia.

William Alfaro, poet and journalist, El Salvador

Elizabeth Manuai, poet, Papua New Guinea

Antje Stehn, poet, visual artist, Germany

World Poetry Movement (WPM) In the context of the continuation of the heinous crime against the Palestinian people in Gaza, the West Bank, Jerusalem, and all the occupied Palestinian territories, the World Poetry Movement (WPM) condemns indiscriminate killings of civilians, including women and children, journalists, doctors, and humanitarian workers in an act of genocide supported by the major powers that sponsor the occupation. The act of brutality and inhumanity makes an unprecedented appearance through live broadcasts on all global media and is witnessed by the whole world.

Despite the global calls made by peace-loving people in many countries of the world that are demanding an immediate end to the war and have been organizing massive marches, public demonstrations, and public readings in hundreds of

Ashraf Aboul-Yazid, Egypt

Mauricio Vélez Mejía. Poeta y cuentista, Colombia.

Maria Elena Mesa. Poet and visual artist. Festival FIPGRA. Canada

Mark Lipman, poet, United States

Marvin Samuel García Citalán, poeta, director del Festival Internacional de Poesía de Quetzaltenango

Andrés Uribe Botero

Poeta. Director del Encuentro Internacional Nadaísta desde Santa Elena.

Norberto Salinas Ollé, poeta, director del Festival Internacional de Poesía de Costa Rica.

Benito Gallardo Martín, -España-