Executive Order 9:
Relocation of the Executive

April 4, 2021

Whereas, the city of Springfield has served as an appropriate temporary location for the executive since the Great Conglomeration of the five states in January 2020;

Whereas, although Springfield has been completely satisfactory as a capital, it serves as a better home to the assembly and the courts than to the executive;

Whereas, Lansing is home to a greater population of Superians than Springfield and more aesthetically-pleasing architecture than the city of Springfield;

Whereas, EO1 was marred by a minor spelling mistake;

Now, therefore, I, Charles Baines, Governor of the State of Superior, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and statutes of the State of Superior, do hereby proclaim as follows:

Section I: Revocation of Executive Order 01
1. Executive Order 001, in its entirety, is hereby declared null and void.

Section II: Relocation
1. The executive building of the State of Superior shall be immediately moved, for all official intents and purposes, to the city of Lansing.

a. The executive branch, including the office of the Governor, will henceforth operate from within the Elliott-Larsen Building, located at 320 S. Walnut Street in the city of Lansing.
2. The Governor of the State of Superior shall henceforth be offered the use of the building formerly known as the Michigan Governor's Mansion at 2520 Oxford Rd in the city of Lansing, as an official residence.
a. This building shall henceforth be known as the Superior Governor's Mansion.
3. The Superior State Senate shall continue to operate fully in the capitol building in the city of Springfield.
4. All executive agencies, offices, and departments who have already relocated to the Elliott-Larsen Building will be viewed as acting in full accordance with this order.

Section III: Effective Date
1. This executive order shall go into effect immediately upon its filing in the State Register.

Signed,

Charles F. Baines

Charles F. Baines
Governor of Superior
