

Option 1 What job you would like to do in the future and why

Choosing a kind of career is a hard task that all school leavers have to do. As for me I've made my choice long ago. I decided to be a _____.

1. an economist	Firstly because of the economic situation in our country good experts are always required at all enterprises. If I study well, I will have great opportunities to get a well-paid job. Secondly, I am good at Mathematics and the English, and these subjects are necessary for my future profession. I hope I'll be able to get profound knowledge and practical skills when I become a university student. Besides, I am sociable and hard-working person . I think these qualities are necessary for this profession. I hope to achieve good results and to turn Russia into a country with a high living standard.
2. a computer programmer.	Firstly, I am interested in computers. My hobby is computer games and computer programming. I have a computer at home and can spend hours working at it. It is much easier to do things on computer, for example to write a composition. You can change the text as many times as you want and you don't need to rewrite everything if you changed something. Secondly, I am good at Mathematics and Computer Studies and these subjects are necessary for my future profession. I hope I'll be able to get profound knowledge and practical skills when I become a university student. Moreover, the profession of programmer can give many opportunities. Computers are the most rapidly changing sphere of modern technology. We are living in the age of information. And I think that the future is just filled with computers If I study well, I will have great opportunities to get a well-paid job..
3.an engineer.	Firstly, I am good at Mathematics and Physics and these subjects are necessary for my future profession. My teachers also say that I'm rather good at this field. I have analytical skills, logical thinking and I'm attentive to details. Secondly, engineering is a great profession. It gives lots of opportunities for development and self-growth. There are so many interesting fields that I can choose from, such as civil engineering, electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, aerospace engineering etc. If I study well, I will have great opportunities to get a well-paid job. Thirdly, I am a sociable and hard-working person . I think these qualities are necessary for this profession. I hope to achieve good results and to make a contribution to the development of my country.
a tour guide	Firstly, I like travelling and sightseeing and this kind of job requires travelling all over the world. Secondly, I am very sociable and enjoy communicating with different people. I think this kind of job gives me such an opportunity. Thirdly, I am good at Literature and History and these subjects are necessary for my future profession. A tour guide should know interesting facts about the history of the sights. My teachers also say that I'm rather good at this field. I have analytical skills and I'm attentive to details. Besides, this profession is rather popular and well-paid nowadays. I want to enjoy my work and get satisfaction from it
An interpreter	As for me in future I would like to become an interpreter. I know that interpreters have opportunities to visit different countries and continents. It attracts me, because I'll get acquainted with various peoples and I'll learn their customs, rituals and traditions. I'm sure that this creative profession enriches our mind and we become more educated. I think that an interpreter is a very useful profession, because it helps people to communicate. But of course if you want to be an interpreter, you will need definite qualification. At first you must know one foreign language at least. It's good, if you know English (the language of

	the planet) and any other language. Also you should know colloquial expressions and slang. You should know the history of the country the language of which you are studying, ways of life that are typical for this country, etc. And of course you must be a sociable, communicative and patient person. I think that this kind of career will suit me because I have almost all qualifications that are needed. But I must continue to work with English grammar and vocabulary as well and German pronunciation. I like this job and I hope that I'll become an interpreter. I hope that my dream will be realized. I try to read English books in the original, learn 10 words at a time and listen to English songs every day, because I want to fulfill my ambitions. profession as I have to communicate with people and find the solution of the problems. These are key subjects in my future profession, and if I want to become a successful specialist, I should master them.

Examples:

To be an IT specialist I need computer science and maths, since these are key subjects in this industry, and if I want to become a successful specialist, I should master them. Also to get to the university I'll have exams and these subjects will definitely be in the list of compulsory subjects.

To be a doctor I need to learn Chemistry and Biology. (To be a journalist I need Russian and Literature. . These subjects are the base of the job I'm thinking about as a career of my life. Also to get to the university I'll have exams and these subjects will definitely be in the list of compulsory subjects. My attitude for building a career is positive. There are both material and spiritual factors that influence the choice of the future career.

Option 3 Whether your family approve of your career choice or not

My parents give me a chance to decide what to do in the future by myself. When a told them about my plans to become a doctor/journalist/IT specialist, they approved my choice and supported me. My parents analysed my future prospects to have good standard of living and promotion prospects and they think that it is a useful job which is also rather well paid. Moreover, my uncle is a successful doctor/journalist/IT specialist, he is my role model and I'm sure that he likes my choice too

Option 4

In what way will English be useful for your career

I'm sure English will be useful for my future career and I'll get the better position thanks to my knowledge. I will have to communicate with foreign partners in English. There are a lot of English articles and books connected with my future profession

Also I'm going to travel a lot and English is the language which all people use (to be able) to communicate abroad. My attitude for English studies is positive. Everyone should be able to speak at least one foreign language nowadays, and there is no doubt that English is of the greatest importance in different spheres of life.

Option 5

What jobs , in your opinion , will be popular in the future, why

Вводное предложение! Choosing future career is very important. The profession that a person chooses determines (определяет) his future life.

Образец!

If I had to choose a couple of popular jobs in the future, I would mention an ecologist and an IT-specialist. I'm sure that the first one will be extremely important as nowadays we face numerous ecological problems which we need to solve to be able to continue living on our planet. IT-specialists will be needed because we live in the world of advanced technologies nowadays, and they develop very fast.

Еще идеи Healthcare specialist (especially mental health professionals, technicians and diagnosticians,) They will be needed as high standard of living means more care about body and mind.

Bioengineer. A specialist in changing the properties of living organisms using the principles of biology and medicine. They can solve acute medical problems and carry out health care tasks.

Designers of a "smart environment". IT-developers of technologies that transfer information between devices. For example, "smart houses" that can independently turn unused appliances or devices on and off, open doors, etc.

Option 6

What job and education opportunities young people have after finishing the 9th form

After finishing 9 forms of a secondary school young people can continue their education in the 10th and the 11th form if they have good results . They can also go to a vocational or technical school, where they study academic subjects and receive a profession. A college gives general knowledge in academic subjects and a profound knowledge in one or several subjects.

After finishing the 9th form there are not many job opportunities. It is possible to become a waiter or a delivery man, for example. Teenagers can also get a part-time job and work as baby-sitters or dog walkers.

My attitude for future jobs is positive. The most important thing about future career is to find you cup of tea in this life and enjoy it, otherwise, you won't be satisfied with your life.
