: Read the following passage and answer the questions below

Our ancestors got their family names from the names of their hometowns. Foreexample, Al Halabi shows that this family was once from Halab in Syria and Haifawi shows that this family was once from Haifa in Palestine. Also the name of the family may come from people's jobs as Annajar, Alhaddad and Alostaz families. Parents usually choose their children's given names in different ways. For example, they often hope their children will be like their names. If Arab parents call their daughter Lucy, for example, they hope she'll bring light into their life and make them happy. And when they call their son Maher, they want him to be skilful and successful at work.

1- Put (T) or (F) :

- () Family names come only from jobs and hometown .
