NATICK - The IRN team loads surplus desks and chairs from Kennedy Middle School into a shipping container destined for an organization that will reuse the furniture.

Case Studies Available:

- Wellesley High School
- Tahanto Regional Middle-High School
- Greenfield High School

Wellesley gained the social and environmental benefits of reuse, and provided disadvantaged communities with desperately needed school furnishings, at a cost to Wellesley that was $14,000 LESS than the cost of sending the old school furniture to landfill.
