Personality

- Phoenix is a rather reserved, shy cat. They would do anything for family and are extremely loyal; perhaps even to a fault. Phoenix always thinks before they act, but would never hesitate to risk their life for those who she is especially close to. They aren't very social, not one to be talkative, but tries their best to get themselves out there on occasion.

History

Early Life

- Phoenix was found by her adoptive parents as an abandoned newborn. She seems to be the quietest of her siblings. She, now that she started to be able to walk, likes to follow her siblings and parents around like a lost puppy.
- Later on in her life, an earthquake struck the colonies, separating her and her family; she, Bylur, Crab, and Fritillary were trapped outside, while the rest of her family was stuck in the caves. Thrasher, a colonymate, passed due to the destruction. Bylur took a leadership role to the outsider cats. Crab seemed to develop something that caused her to lose coordination due to injury. Phoenix didn't know how to feel and just decided to help her as best as she could.
- Rune, their leader, made a deal with an outsider group to assist with freeing the trapped cats, in exchange for resources/aid. Soon, the colony was able to reunite, and Phoenix was overjoyed to see her family again.
- A neighboring colony called the Fire Colony, falls. Cavern Colony gained a few more members as Fire Colony cats decided to join. Because there was space available, the Cavern Colony expanded its borders.
- Phoenix soon got the courage to tell their parents that they wanted to go by they/them, now identifying as agender.

Adult Life

- Phoenix finally became an adult, choosing to be a navigator. They seem to actually enjoy their job, quickly learning the caves and the way around them.
