

LYRICS:

(VERSE)

The distrust
That's in us
And that grimace
It puts on your face
Loud and clear
But I can't hear
Your screams of fear
When they go to waste
I withdrew
From all you
And saw the truth
That we're all the same
Let's agree to disagree
Full o' fuckin' lies, might as well say your goodbyes

I've noticed
No one gets
In our pointless world, with distorted grace
I've lived in pain my whole life
I'll give you a taste, you can't change my mind
Ah, I'm worthless
Not worth it
It can't hurt if-
If I lose control
1, 2, 3, all eyes on me!
You should realize that you brought on your demise

(TALKING)

Surely you get it
You gotta understand!
I have a broken moral code with cruel thoughts of the damned!

How I regret it,
I'm filled with shame!
My troubled logic justifies
That you're the one to blame!

I think I got it
I know what it's about!
The people here deserve to die and suffer all around!

Now you should listen

Oh, won't you please?
Death is hard to deal with,
But you cannot deal with me!

(CHORUS)

Don't you know?
I'm truly evil, and
Everybody 'round me's dropping dead!
Overflowing,
Oddly gleeful, and
You're all blue and cold,
Yet painted red!
Undergone drastic changes
All along I've known it's wrong
But I can't fix what I am
It's all I can be

(VERSE)

I can't breathe
I can't see
Can't be happy
If you want success
I've lived in fear my whole life
I'll give you a taste, you can't change my mind
No, I didn't!
Yes, I did it!
Past my limit
I can do without
Put them out their misery
For the thousandth time, I have rid them of a life

(TALKING)

Surely you get it
You gotta understand!
I have a broken moral code with cruel thoughts of the damned!

How I regret it,
I'm filled with shame!
My troubled logic justifies
That you're the one to blame!

I think I got it
I know what it's about!
The people here deserve to die and suffer all around!

Hey, what is it?
You seem distressed
Escaping what is troubling you works better than the rest!

(CHORUS)

Don't you know?
I'm truly evil, and
Everybody 'round me's dropping dead!
Overflowing,
Oddly gleeful, and
You're all blue and cold,
Yet painted red!
Undergone drastic changes
All along I've known it's wrong
But I can't fix what I am
It's all I know

Low and behold!
I'm truly evil, and
You're a person standing in my way!
Have I shown
I can be lethal
I'll leave them all to rot and to decay
Hold on tight!
It will be painful
Oh, it's more than your weak mind can conceive
You're all blind
I'll take what's mine
Oh, I wish I could restrain
It's all I can be

(BRIDGE)

Hey, everybody on this awful day
Hey, why is everyone in disarray?
Paying the price of being one of you
Hey, you don't know what I have been through!
Racing, you meet me at the finish line
Breaking myself cause I know I'm behind

Grazing the blade along my stupid face
Shaking as I put on my last display

[look at me I'm a foul mess...]

(CHORUS)

Don't you know?!
I'm truly evil, and
Everyone I know is fucking dead!
Overflowing,
Oddly tearful, and
Soon I will be cold
And painted red!
Undergone my final changes
All along I've known it's wrong
But I can't fix what I've done
That's all I know

Low and behold!
I'm truly evil, and
I'm the only one that's in the way!
Have I shown
I will be lethal
I'll leave myself behind and to decay!
Hold on tight!
It's really painful
But, I deserve this fate
To die, to bleed
I'm now blind
I'm pushed aside
Oh, now, who could disagree?
It's truly me
