

Clothing & Fashion Revue Form

Constructed Clothing

Nicollet County 4-H, 2025

Clothing & Textile exhibitors are encouraged to participate in Fashion Revue judging and fashion show! Exhibitors can use the same garment to participate in both fashion revue and the corresponding clothing & textiles exhibit in the same year at both the county and state fair. To participate, register in FairEntry under both.

Judging and Fashion Show

Constructed Clothing and Fashion Revue will be judged on Tuesday, July 22 at the Nicollet Community Room located in Nicollet from 9 a.m. to noon. The public fashion show for Fashion Revue will be on Tuesday, July 22 at 7 p.m. at Nicollet School Auditorium in Nicollet

Bring this completed form with you to judging.

Constructed Clothing Requirements

- Include an information tag listing: pattern company name and number or inspirational photo for design, fiber content of fabric, and care instructions (see form below)
- Exhibits should be finished, clean, and pressed. Exhibits can be used before showing, but should be cleaned before exhibiting.
- Items constructed should be appropriate for the skill level and experience of the exhibitor.

Fashion Revue Requirements

Fashion Revue is judged on the overall completed look which includes the outfit, accessories, and overall appearance

- Participants may model any clothing they have constructed, purchased, or upcycled as a part of their 4-H clothing project.
- Garments are required to be modeled during conference judging and the fashion show.
- Exhibitors must provide a short narrative and a photo for the fashion show. Bring this photo with you to judging.

Constructed Clothing Information

Include this information with your item:

Name:

Club:

Fabric/Fiber Content:

Care instructions:

Pattern Company Name and number or inspirational photo for the design:

Your narrative for Fashion Revue-Constructed Clothing

Tips on writing your narrative:

- Start with your name and club.
- Include a description of the item you made or purchased as your exhibit, information on the type of fibers in the fabric, and other items of interest--such as item care, cost, occasion to be worn, any new experiences or learning about it, and any other factors that were important to you about this item.
- The script should be a minimum of 30 words. Please write complete sentences in 3rd person (as if someone else is reading it about you). Read them aloud to yourself, to check if they sound okay. Be as creative as possible.
- You will have a chance to revise your narrative on judging day.

Include a photo of you wearing the outfit to submit with your narrative.

Narrative: