

The Importance of Theology

- 1. Why is systematic theology essential for the life and health of the church, and how should that shape our priorities as men, husbands, and fathers?
- 2. If theology is the lifeblood of the church, what does that say about its place in our homes and our leadership in them?
- 3. How can reclaiming sound theology help us resist cultural drift and lead our families with greater spiritual clarity?
- 4. What does it mean that theology is not just for scholars but for every Christian — especially for men called to lead in their homes and churches?
- 5. How can we, as husbands and fathers, take responsibility for developing and applying sound theology in our everyday lives?
- 6. In what ways does faithful theology help us think rightly about our identity as men, our purpose as husbands, and our responsibility as fathers?
- 7. How has the loss of theological depth in the church contributed to confusion in what it means to be a man, husband, or father today?

8. How can theological convictions help us stand firm in a culture that is increasingly hostile to biblical manhood and fatherhood?
9. What dangers do we face as men when we neglect sound doctrine in favor of cultural trends or pragmatic approaches to life and leadership?
10. How should the Reformation solas (e.g., sola Scriptura, solus Christus) impact how we lead and disciple our families?
12. What does it look like for theology to shape not just what we believe, but how we love our wives and raise our children?
13. How can we cultivate a household where sound theology is not only taught but lived and modeled in every area of life?
14. What does it mean to ‘think God’s thoughts after Him’ in the context of marriage and fatherhood?
15. How can we guard our homes from theological drift and keep Christ at the center of our family life?

16. What spiritual disciplines can help us grow in theological understanding and better fulfill our roles as spiritual leaders in the home?

17. How does knowing the triune God more deeply transform the way we approach responsibility, sacrifice, and servant leadership?
