

SL: Your wolf personality is cool Andrew

Whats popping Andrew,

Your website stood out to me as I quite liked the way in which you incorporate a wolf-styled personality into your brand.

This made me want to create some highly disruptive emails for you, designed to drive more traffic from your email list to your Trading chat room plans.

These are specifically tailored so that they reflect the “wolf” voice of your brand. (You can find these emails below 📌)

Would you say that these emails match your brand’s voice, or do they need any adjustments before you can test them out?

All the best,
Koray
