

SOCIAL 10-1 or 10-2

Students will need access to technology.

SOCIAL STUDIES 10-1

What is globalization and how does it affect us? Social Studies 10-1 students explore the changing meaning of identity and citizenship in a globalizing world, while also understanding the impacts of globalization, both positive and negative, on people worldwide.

SOCIAL STUDIES 10-2

What is globalization and how does it impact me? Social Studies 10-2 students explore the history and effects of globalization. They develop an understanding of the impact that globalization has on people's identity and citizenship, while addressing emerging issues that globalization presents.

Overview

Students will explore multiple perspectives on the origins of globalization and the local, national and international impacts of globalization on lands, cultures, economies, human rights and quality of life. Students will examine the relationships among globalization, citizenship and identity to enhance skills for citizenship in a globalizing world. The infusion of multiple perspectives will allow students to examine the effects of globalization on peoples in Canada and throughout the world, including the impact on Aboriginal and Francophone communities.

Rationale

Globalization, the process by which the world's citizens are becoming increasingly connected and interdependent, demands that students explore responsibilities associated with local and global citizenship and formulate individual responses to emergent issues related to globalization. Recognizing and appreciating the influence of globalization will lead students to develop individual and collective responses to emergent issues.

Key Issue

To what extent should we embrace globalization?

Key Outcome

Students will understand, assess and respond to the complexities of globalization.

Related Issues

1. To what extent should globalization shape identity?
2. To what extent should contemporary society respond to the legacies of historical globalization?
3. To what extent does globalization contribute to sustainable prosperity for all people?
4. To what extent should I, as a citizen, respond to globalization?

General Outcomes

- Students will explore the impacts of globalization on their lives.
- Students will assess the impacts of historical globalization on Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples.
- Students will assess economic, environmental and other contemporary impacts of globalization.
- Students will assess their roles and responsibilities in a globalizing world.
