Hello Faculty

First off, if you haven't already, check out Lynn's email from last night. CCFF has won a historic legal battle against the District regarding just cause. You will note that the decision highlights the District's bad faith bargaining, specifically in not taking their obligation to bargain seriously.

As Ted Stolze mentions in his email, the District team is largely the same as it was when we filed this PERB charge. And the District's lack of reasonable economic proposals smacks of the same bad faith bargaining they have been found to engage in previously.

CCFF and the District have another mediation session scheduled for May 31, 2022. Your negotiation team wants you to know that CCFF will consider any reasonable offer from the district. We will continue to negotiate in good faith, as long as the offer from the district is reasonable.

In the meantime, we are preparing for work actions in the fall. CCFF is forming a strike planning committee. As of today the members are. Lynn Wang, Monica Lopez, Ralph Casas, Carlos Mera, and Henrietta Hurtado. If you are interested in joining the strike planning committee please email Lynn Wang at President@ccffcerritos.org. She will meet with you over the summer to discuss next steps.

Additionally, if you are feeling like you want to share the good news of our legal victory with the Trustees there is a board meeting tonight! Lynn will be there in person and you are welcome to share your thoughts with the BOT via phone message (562-888-3610), written comment, or in person comment (arrive by 6:45 and fill out a public comment card)

We will keep fighting for CCFF's reasonable, affordable, and equitable economic package.
