Little Sasha and Misha the Bear

"May I go and pick mushrooms, grandma?" asked Sasha. "Yes, but don't go too far into the forest. You may get lost." Looking for mushrooms, Sasha wandered deep into the forest, and could not find her way back.

After a while, she saw a hut that belonged to the bear, Misha Ivanovich. Sasha told him that she was lost. "Very well then, stay here and help me," said Misha. The bear made her work very hard. Sasha soon thought of a plan to escape. She baked some Russian cakes and asked Misha to take them to her grandparents.

"Don't try eating any piroshky!" said Sasha. "I am going to climb a tall tree and watch you!"

When the bear wasn't looking, Sasha hid under the piroshky in the basket. Misha picked up the basket and set off. Every time he stopped to rest and put a paw into the basket, Sasha would call out, "I can see you!" "What good eyes she has!"

Soon he reached Sasha's grandparents' house. "Is anyone home?" he shouted. The dogs in the village barked at him. As he ran away, Misha dropped the basket. Sasha's grandparents saw her. They were very happy.
