

The Unhealthy Chesapeake Which states make up the Chesapeake? Describe the population and family structure of the Chesapeake region during the 17th Century: The Tobacco Economy What were the effects of tobacco on the soil and native relations? Why? Which group worked the land on the tobacco farms? What other groups were considered? Why were they not used? Head Right System: Describe the life of indentured servants:	Frustrated Freeman and Bacon's Rebellion Why were so many of the men in the Chesapeake discontent with their lives? Why did Nathaniel Bacon and the other frontiersman resent Gov. William Berkley? What did Bacon and others do because of their resentment? How was the rebellion handled and looked at by the crown? Colonial Slavery Where did most of the slaves from Africa go? What changed to make African slaves the best economic option?	Where did most African slaves come from? Who brought them to market? Describe the slave codes: Africans in America Describe Slavery in South Carolina vs. the Chesapeake : What was Gullah? How did African contribute to American culture and economy?
---	---	--

Southern Society What was the role of the “First Families in Virginia”? Describe the social classes of the south? Large Merchant Planters (FFV): Small Plot Land Owners: Landless Whites: Black Slaves: The New England Family Why did those in New England live longer than the rest of the colonies or Old World England? How was the social structure of New England different than the Chesapeake?	Describe the life of women in New England: Why did women in the South have more property rights? What were the different right for the New England and Southern regions? Life in the New England Towns Why was their community unity in New England? What was the first college established in the colonies? Why was founded? How did Puritans use town meetings?	The Half-way covenant and the Salem Witch Trials Why did the Puritan zeal gradually decrease in New England? What is the “jeremiad”? What was the half-way covenant? Why was it established? Why were some older women in Salem accused of Witchcraft? Who accused them? What happened to these women? Why does the economic structure of new England important in this situation?
---	--	--

Why did the witch craft hysteria eventually end? The New England Way of Life How did the stony soil of New England shape the economy and culture? How did the settlers view the use of the land by Native Americas? What developed into main industry of New England? How did New England shape the rest of America?	The Early Settlers Days and Ways Describe life in colonial America Women: Men: Kids: From what social class would most immigrants be associated with? Why? Why did the Social structure of Old World England fail in the New World for the large part? Additional Notes: From Africa to African American on pg 74-75
---	--	--