Commission Terms of Service:

1: The commission will be posted to my social media unless discussed otherwise, private commissions may come with an additional 20% fee.

2: I will not draw vore, cub/young, birthing, watersports and scat. most other stuff is fine, but ask if you aren't sure.

3: Feel free to post the commissions you get, if you do please tag me or put one of my links somewhere in the description <https://linktr.ee/legser960>

4: I'm open to making some free adjustments to the artwork to best fit your idea, but too many requested adjustments, or making a big change late into the process may require a fee depending on the amount of additional work.

5: Payment must be through Paypal invoice, or preferably if you live in Canada you can E-Transfer instead through your bank for a slight discount.

6: I will begin work when I receive payment, I am open to payment planning, like half up front, half later.

7: I will send screenshots of the work as I progress so you can make adjustments early in the process. You can add me on discord or telegram, or if you'd rather I'll send images through the site you reached out from if I can.

8: I currently have a 4 character soft limit, there may be a few occasions where I do a page with more, but for the most part I would prefer drawing within that limit.

9: Prices are in USD, I can convert it to CAD or other currencies if needed.

10: Commissions can be expected to take up to a month and usually less than a week upon starting

11: Prices will be adjusted to meet demand.

12: Unless you requested to stay anonymous, please send me your bluesky, twitter, furaffinity, and inkbunny links so I can place it in the description when I post.

13: Limit of 4 active and paid commissions in my queue, you can still join the waiting queue but I wont accept payment until your commission reaches the active queue.

14: You may negotiate the price with me, I'll try to make adjustments we can both agree on to suit your budget

15: If you are dissatisfied with the art during the process you can get a refund, but you will be charged for the time spent on said project.
