Week 4: Drama Queens

It's crazy how out of all the drama queens, I'm the one who was actually right and lost to a guy who lost a starter last week. Chandler had the freezing cold take that Caleb was for sure going to lose, and he ended up scoring the most points in the league. Actually, Chandler and Caleb were our highest scorers in the league.

Standings

Below are the standings and final standings projections as of 10/03/2023 1:44 PM.

Team	Record	Point's For	Owner	Projected Finish
Breesus Christ	3-1	471	Justin Freitas	1 (-)
Kuppenheimer	2-2	527.5	Chandler Jardin	3 (+5)
Jordanian Addington	2-2	524.6	Keegan Fike	5 (-1)
I Gotta Thielen	2-2	464.3	Davelle Carreiro	6 (-1)
Tyreeks of WINNING up in here	2-2	463.6	Alex D'Abruzzo	4 (-2)
May the fantasy Gods bless me	2-2	447.1	Seth Medeiros	8 (-1)
CeeDeeFlower(s) My Cousins	2-2	440.6	Tyler Rego	7 (-1)
Banandor's Boys	2-2	440.6	Andrew Bulhoses	2 (+1)
The Plantation	2-2	421.1	Alec Plante	9 (-)
King of the Pirates	1-3	460.6	Caleb Bolger	10 (-)

Andrew puts up an embarrassing loss and is bottom 2 in points for and he moved up in final standings projections to 2nd. Make it make sense ESPN. However, ESPN seems to be on the right track with Justin's team so I guess that works. No real significant change in standings except for Chandler skyrocketing through the final standings to 3rd place.

The Matchups

Matchup #1: CeeDeeFlower(s) My Cousins (Tyler) Vs. Kuppenheimer (Chandler)

Man this was a close matchup man. Well it was until about 4 minutes into SNF. Really wasn't expecting Pacheco to have a career day, but I do have to thank you and him for relieving me of watching Taylor Swift/Zach Wilson. Congratulations Chandler for deflowering me 137.9-121.5.

Justin Herbert (24.6) contributed to my losses here and in dynasty so fuck this guy. Etienne (10.2) is proving to be a solid asset as an RB2. It's too bad he is your RB1. Mattison (10.8) seems to be losing opportunities to some guy named Cam Akers. AJ Brown (38.5) should have shut his god damn mouth instead of bitching about targets. Keenan Allen (12.2) finally cooled off after being the WR1 in the league. Evan Engram (12.9) continues to be consistently good for a tight end. Javonte Williams (3.9) unfortunately died but it apparently didn't matter, did it Chandler? Isaiah Pacheco (24.8) decided he was carrying the chiefs instead of Pat Mahomes this week. You get to play Andrew next week, and if he plays like he did last week, it should be an easy W for you.

I was going to say my team wasn't even bad, but I definitely had some shitters out there. Kirk (10.6) fucking sucked against the Panthers somehow Joe Mixon (8.6) is not RB1 material. D'Andre Swift is RB1 material despite being in a committee. CeeDee Lamb was fine thanks to a touchdown after Gonzo died. Zay Flowers (8) was mediocre despite being the only WR on that team. Apparently, Agholhu Akbar is the guy there. Mark Andrews (25) finally had the big day I was waiting for. Jakobi unfortunately fell off because Aiden is absolute dogshit at football. Puka Nacua (31.3) continues to be my hero, but his time may be over as Kupp returns this week. Once again, my bench fucking balled out because I didn't play them. I play Keegan this week and this should be interesting.

Matchup #2: Jordanian Addington (Keegan) Vs. Breesus Christ (Justin)

Speaking of Keegan, he unfortunately couldn't get the W against Justin, but it was a close matchup that had swaying projections the whole day. In the battle for first place, Justin took this one 116.5-109.9.

Pat Mahomes (14.9) couldn't be a hero for you this week, as he was barely able to beat the Jets. Miles Sanders (6.2) is a boom or bust guy now. Raheem Mostert (5.5) also put up a shitter, but don't worry Keegan, you are still winning the trade. Stefon Diggs (36) had a sneaky explosion day. Michael Pittman (4.5) also kind of sucked, but that's what happens when Minschew Mania is replaced. Sam LaPorta (9.6) had a meh day, but still is a serviceable tight end for you. DK Metcalf (12.4) had a touchdown, but it wasn't enough to put you over the top. Brandon Aiyuk (20.8) is the number 1 in San Fran. Deebo ain't shit. You get to play me this week, so I hope you enjoy 2-3.

Justin, all alone up there in first place. I'm not worried though as you have [REDACTED]'s curse of remaining in second place. Anthony Richardson (30.7) started off slow, but he popped off in the end. Kenneth Walker (13.9) got his one touchdown that secured you the win this week. It is truly crazy how much better Kyren (27.7) is than Cam Akers. Ja'Marr Chase (14.3) is always open, but he must've had a falling out with his butt buddy Joe. Davante Adams (15.5) managed to have a good day with that garbage can throwing him the ball. Hunter Henry (9.1) is one of the very few good Patriots players. Chris Olave (1.4) decided to not play this week I guess. Tank Dell (3.9) is not him bro. Nico Collins is him. Please for the love of god, start De'Von next week. Hopefully, he can have you beat Alex. .

Matchup #3: The Plantation (Alec) Vs. Tyreeks of WINNING up in here (Alex)

Alec, congratulations on the win man. I hope you were finally able to feel joy from fantasy football. You were also a top 3 scorer in the league. Alex, I was scared of your team a bit, I won't lie, but now I am not so concerned. Alec smacked Alex this week 129.9 - 99.4.

Josh Allen (38.6) was the guy for you this week Alec. It doesn't get much better than that. Bijan Robinson (18.7) may be on a bad team, but he is scoring out of pure volume it seems. Dameon Pierce (11.8) also relied on pure volume, but it works. Amon-Ra (16.6) didn't meet his projection of 16.7 so I am obligated to say he is garbage. Chris Godwin (19.4) on the other hand, thrived in the absence of Mike Evans. Nobody wants Kyle Pitts for trading, so let us fight for him in the waivers. Justin also told me to mention that Jonnu is the guy there. I was also planning on mentioning this, but just wanted to let you know. Tyler Lockett (9.4) was fine this week. I know he isn't in your starting lineup, but Cam Akers is ass. Congratulations on getting Gabe Davis by the way, I'm really not sure why Andrew made this trade to be honest. I wonder if he is going to start for you when you play Caleb this week.

Alex, you haven't been talking much in the chats. Is everything okay? Starting to act like [REDACTED] in this bitch. Lamar Jackson (29.6) is the elite QB of old, it's official. Tony Pollard (9) didn't get much action in the ass blasting of New England. James Cook (14.7) once again did better than I thought he would. Tyreek Hill (10.2) was actually shut down by the Bills. Calvin Ridley (11.8) was apparently a one-hit wonder. Darren Waller (5.2) continues to be a huge disappointment for the Giants. Last year, you were a Sutton guy. You should have stuck with that because Jeudy (8.2) is not that guy. Rachaad White (10.8) is a meh guy, not great, not bad. You have a tough matchup against Justin next week, so bring out the best lineup.

Matchup #4: I Gotta Thielen (Davelle) Vs. King of the Pirates (Caleb)

Davelle returned to being Davelle, and Caleb returned to being Caleb this week. Caleb was pretty much out of it, and then CMC played. Caleb destroyed Davelle this week 152-97.1.

Trevor Lawrence (18.7) wasn't too bad in his home away from home this week. He is still in London, so maybe he can do it again. Aaron Jones (2.4) was on a pitch count, and he was still better than AJ Dillon. (I'm killing myself man). Zach Moss (9) did not ball out in his last week as starter for the Colts., but Justin Jefferson (26.5) did ball out. (What a surprise). Jaylen Waddle (8.6) had another bad week this week. George Kittle (1.9) used to be great until he got hurt, and now he's just bad all the time. Devonta Smith (14.8) did what you needed him to do.

Adam Thielen (15.2) was a great pick. I wonder what idiot would drop that man. You should probably consider starting David Montgomery (34.1) this week when you play [REDACTED].

Caleb, have you considered getting a new QB yet? I have two good ones if you want one of them. Joe Burrow (6.7) is having one of the worst fall offs right now. I was going to judge you for not drafting Jefferson with the #1 pick, but CMC (48.7) proved me wrong. It is unfortunate that San Fran didn't let him get the franchise record. Josh Jacobs (27.9) returned to form this week apparently.

Turns out Jimmy G was bringing him down this whole time. Garrett Wilson (15) finally convinced Zach to throw him the ball. Tee Higgins (3.9) unfortunately couldn't finish out the day. Dallas Goedert (4.5) sucks man. You need to trade for a new TE. Nico Collins (35.8) was an interesting start that paid off extremely well. Jerome Ford (9.5) had a fine day despite getting smacked by Baltimore. You get to play Alec in the Mid-off next week.

Matchup #5: [REDACTED] Vs. Banandor's Boys (Andrew)

Jeez Andrew, imagine not beating [REDACTED]? That is so embarrassing for you. Welcome to the bottom half of the standings my guy. [REDACTED] walks away with this one 109.8-75.1.

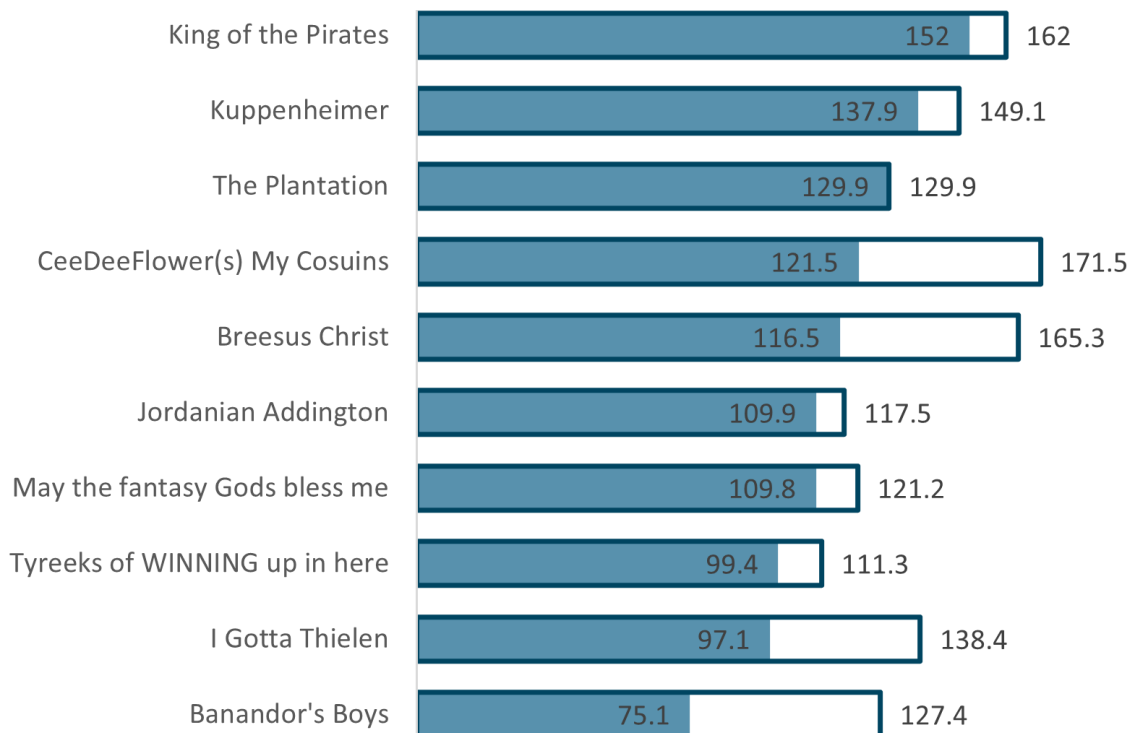

[REDACTED] had an okay performance this week, but it was more than enough to win. Jalen Hurts (26.5) had a great week this week. Derrick Henry (24.4) did King Henry things this week with a sick TD run. James Conner (6.6) had an off week, but it was his first bad week of the year. DHop (10.3) continues to look fine I guess. Marquise Brown (16.6) is having a good season with his bum ass QB. TJ Hockenson (4.4) was also ass this week, but he is still TE1. Michael Thomas (9.3) isn't what he used to be, but he is still a solid 10 points every week. Courtland Sutton (11.7) is the guy in Denver over Jeudy. [REDACTED] gets to play Davelle next week, who also sucked, so it should be a good matchup.

Oh Andrew, you flexed that you were in 3rd place, and look at you now. Low in the standings after a 75 point week. Tua (16.4) couldn't matchup against the monstrous Bills. Mondre was the biggest reach in the draft. I'm glad you were finally able to accept that. Jahmyr Gibbs (9.1) was supposed to be CMC, but he is moreso a Cam Akers. Amari Cooper (2.6) was dog shit without Deshaun. Mike Evans (7) was ass before he got hurt. Congrats on losing the trade man. Travis Kelce (12) couldn't score despite his GF watching. Deebo Samuel (0.6) is not the guy in San Fran. Alvin Kamara (21.4) looked like his former self on the field though. You made very poor lineup decisions this week. Do better next week against Chandler.

What Could've Been:

I wish I knew how to start a lineup man.
