

Generally speaking, these prompts often fall into one of the following categories:

- a) They are letters/speeches honoring an individual
- b) They are letters/speeches demanding attention to a cause
- c) They are speeches articulating a political position or goal
- d) They are essays about nature or a structure, either expressing awe or offering an expert analysis.