

2025-03-09 Promo and other stuff, VHO / Iskill's stream

After being renamed multiple times, and getting comments removed (where people are directed to where to find servers to play), iwolfking asked for clarification on the matter:

The conversation moved on to what is considered “promoting” on the VHO discord server:

Link to start of the conversation (has been removed after Wolf was banned):

<https://discord.com/channels/889424759018901514/1340248226623782984/1348283675036614728>

...so that means people can't promote it if that's not correct.

DElyMyth | .-.- ...- Today at 2:27 PM

I read that as can't promote:

- addons (including performance and QOL addons I take?)
- servers that aren't the official one
- I guess even content that's not the official one?

The channels have been removed and messages that mention any of the above (not sure about content) are also removed

Grizzy Today at 2:28 PM

Little restrictive no?

solesurvivor233 sky lvl 88 Today at 2:29 PM

Still gotta convince myself to go back to my VH skyblock at some point.

Lvl 90 something and buddies talked me into a different pack server and haven't been able to make myself come back

Grizzy Today at 2:29 PM

Kind of crazy that Iskall talks about expansion of the game but not allowing talk of addons or anything like that keeps the focus very narrow?

@Grizzy Little restrictive no?

Douwsky 📌 Today at 2:29 PM

nothing keeping you here if you don't agree which might sound harsh

Grizzy Today at 2:30 PM

No I just find it interesting

Douwsky 📌 Today at 2:30 PM

but the guidelines are there to keep this place nice

Grizzy Today at 2:30 PM

Fair enough guess this is not a democracy

Douwsky 📌 Today at 2:30 PM

yeah, i suggest you leave this won't be a discord for you with comments like that as they add absolutely 0

this discord is for the official modpack

řizek | Wold's Today at 2:35 PM

wow, I didn't know you wanted to be that hostile so far josh seems like the only person from the current team that is worth talking to

 solesurvivor233 sky lvl 88 Today at 2:38 PM
I imagine it's a stressful period for everyone higher up, what's happening behind the scenes can affect how people interact

---

 Douwsky Today at 2:39 PM
has nothing to do with it there are just some people here who are purely here to stir things up and i don't see how making people read the guidelines again is hostile when they start arguing with them

 @Douwsky there are just some people here who are purely here to stir things up

 solesurvivor233 sky lvl 88 Today at 2:41 PM
I understand that, been around the server long enough to know you usually chill with people

 Coolcabbage Today at 2:41 PM
Also wouldn't be the first time they changed the guidelines without any mention

 DElyMyth | :-- :-- Today at 2:43 PM
No, people are not here to stir things up, people are here because they (somewhat?) play the pack or have played it, and are trying to help.
This can include addons.
Addons was a pretty popular section before the changes.

 @Douwsky there are just some people here who are purely here to stir things up

 iwolfking Today at 2:44 PM
I'm not here to stir anything up, many of my comments are for helping people, including the ones linking to addons. Some of which have been added to the official pack previously, how are they not relevant? Same for people wanting to post server ads, for the official VH3 modpack I'm sure.

---

None of this was previously an issue (including my nickname), and you all consider two letters (WV) in some peoples name to be promo? What? I can't put "ABC" in my profile because its promo for the alphabet?

 Douwsky Today at 2:45 PM
and as said multiple times already by multiple staff, Addons and other promotion channels will return in the future.
we have no ETA for this.
There is no reason for any one else to start promoting their own discord server to give people this access. This is promotion and therefore currently against the guidelines.

 iwolfking Today at 2:46 PM
Why such the slow rollout? It would take moments to re-enable the channels.

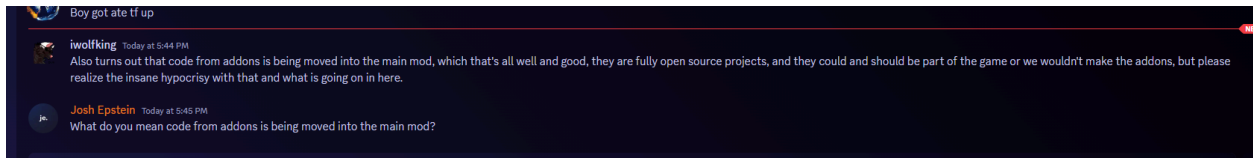

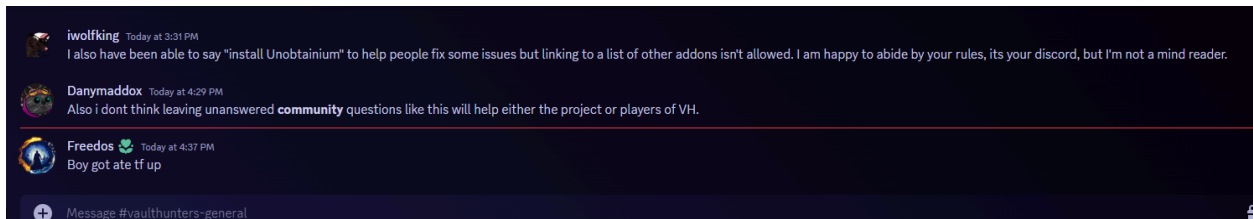

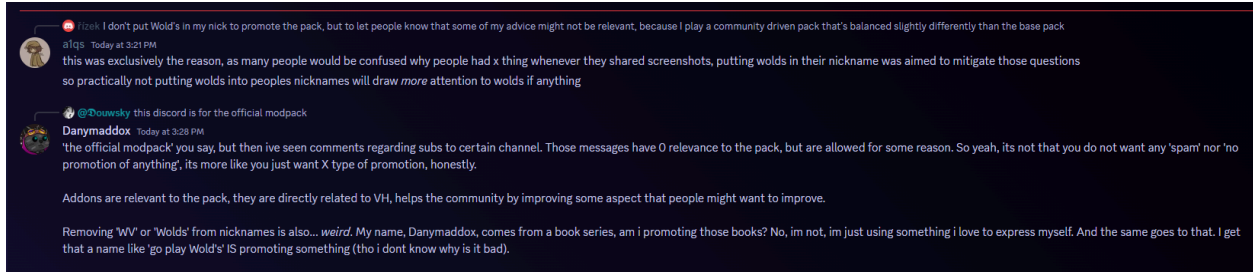

---

Also that's fine (the discord server thing), but the link in my profile does not link to my discord in anyway, just links to Curseforge.

 Fizek | Wold's Today at 2:47 PM
I don't put Wold's in my nick to promote the pack, but to let people know that some of my advice might not be relevant, because I play a community driven pack that's balanced slightly differently than the base pack

 iwolfking Today at 2:47 PM
Yeah, what rizek said is exactly why we had always included it in our name previously.
It was never previously an issue and is now being made one.

 iwolfking Today at 2:58 PM
May I ask what the issue with Wold's is in general? It's still a pack that benefits iskall, and I had always encouraged its discussion away from this discord. (edited)

Last minute additions, in WV discord:

For context, what I woke up to:

 unbecomingtransformation (monkey) Today at 6:18 AM

They did, yeah.

I'm sure they sensed a "tone" in the statement. It doesn't matter if you didn't make the statement with any kind of tone, they probably sensed it.

 iwolfking Today at 6:20 AM
This is all I said

Wasn't ever seeking it but if this server is gonna fall apart everytime someone technically breaks the rules im not gonna stay in it

mnooseman Today at 8:15 PM

I'm not sure why you think the server's falling apart?

stimedbeast Today at 8:34 PM

Not gonna continue this conversation because continuing will most likely result in me getting banned even if I'm right

mnooseman Today at 8:35 PM

O_o

I mean, I don't ban people unless they break the cardinal rule: Don't be a dick.

stimedbeast Today at 8:35 PM

But as for how I know I sincerely hope you know even when things are deleted there are logs of everything on the internet

@stimedbeast Not gonna continue this conversation because continuing will most likely result in me getting banned even if I'm right

Jollygreen0502 Today at 8:35 PM

They do seem to enjoy banning people who don't agree with them in the slightest.

mnooseman Today at 8:36 PM

If that was the case, I would have banned you just now @Jollygreen0502 - But I didn't 😊

It's pretty simple, really. Don't be a dick, you won't get banned.

stimedbeast Today at 8:36 PM

And don't talk about add ons that are in the game in the server where you talk about the game
Cough

mnooseman Today at 8:37 PM

No one has been banned for talking about addons. We've requested that people not talk about Addons until we have an appropriate place to do so

Wut

 mnooseman 🦋 Today at 8:58 PM
Dannyy - chill out
Don't need backseat moderators 😊

 aida Today at 8:58 PM
I'm guessing the ban was more likely related to him linking the list of addons, with the list also including links to multiple statements from former devs and community members mnooseman 🦋 Correct. We don't discuss bans, for privacy reasons. We prefer not to air peoples grievances in public. Ultimately it would go against the cardinal rule of Don't Be a Dick

 hannah 🍀 Today at 8:58 PM
Could you in this case inform the people who were banned for what reason they were banned? In my eyes this only causes more harm for this discord server and causes more speculations for the people affected by this. Genuine question

 stimedbeast 🍀 Today at 8:59 PM
I would like a little clarity if it would be possible on his ban HOWEVER if there is multiple people saying that wasn't the reason I will admit i was in the wrong

 stimedbeast 🍀 Today at 8:59 PM
I would like a little clarity if it would be possible on his ban HOWEVER if there is multiple people saying that wasn't the reason I will admit i was in the wrong
And I apologize for causing a scene

 Jollygreen0502 Today at 8:59 PM
Just saying something it not the case, doesn't really provide any clarification. It doesn't convince anyone of anything and just fuels speculation

 mnooseman 🦋 Today at 8:59 PM
I mean people are going to speculate one way or the other, no?
Really it's my word vs his
And people are going to believe whomever they want to believe

 Jollygreen0502 Today at 9:00 PM
Not being transparent just gives more room and reason to speculate

 Robotmonkey Today at 9:00 PM
Couldn't you dm him the reason he was banned, he can share it, and then you could agree if what he shares is correct? No speculation then?

 Douwsky 🗑️ Today at 9:00 PM
we are aware of his discord, and reddit post and stuff that goes on inside his discord does that clarify enough, as that will be the last thing being said on this topic @Robotmonkey Couldn't you dm him the reason he was banned, he can share it, and then you could agree if what he shares is correct? No speculation then?

 stimedbeast 🍀 Today at 9:01 PM
That would be the worst idea
No disrespect

 mnooseman 🦋 I mean people are going to speculate one way or the other, no?

 hannah 🍀 Today at 9:01 PM
Yes that is correct, but this would at least provide some sort of clarity for the people who were banned, im not talking about other people that have nothing to do with that.

Im talking about the specific individuals that are banned for reasons that you (and other Moderators here) decide. It provides clarity for the person affected. Hope that clears it up

 mnooseman 🦋 Today at 9:01 PM
Agree with stimedbeast on that one. I can tell you he was given a reason in the ban message

 @Douwsky does that clarify enough, as that will be the last thing being said on this topic

 stimedbeast 🍀 Today at 9:01 PM
I don't believe there is any reason to be rude about this

 mnooseman 🦋 Today at 9:02 PM
But what was in the message vs what he says publically may not be the same - I can't control his messaging

 Douwsky 🗑️ Today at 9:02 PM
and i don't believe this has to be brought up every single day yet it still does

 stimedbeast 🍀 Today at 9:02 PM
The conversation has barely started shutting it down as it starts before everything has been calmed down may make the situation worse

I understand that
