

UNIT 2: HOW TO READ MUSIC. Lesson 1: Staff, Clefs and Notes. ACTIVITIES.

- 1.What is the "staff"?
- 2.The staff is composed of _____ lines and _____ spaces.
- 3.This is the _____ line:

- 4.This is the _____ space:

- 5.Lower-pitched notes are written _____ on the staff. Higher-pitched notes are written _____.
- 6.What is a "ledger line"?
- 7.How many ledger lines can you use?
- 8.Why do we need to write the clef before we start to write music?
- 9.There are _____ clefs.
- 10.The use of different clefs makes it possible to write music for _____.
- 11.The most commonly used clefs are the _____ and the _____.
- 12.G-Clef or Treble Clef determines that G is placed on the _____ line.
- 13.Bass Clef determines that F is placed on the _____ line.
- 14.Among the instruments that use the Treble Clef are _____, _____, _____ and _____.
- 15.Among the instruments that use the Bass Clef are _____, _____ and _____.
16. There are _____ natural notes:

| | | | | | | |
|----------|--|--|----------|--|--|--|
| C | | | F | | | |
|----------|--|--|----------|--|--|--|