Training Descriptions:

- Election Response Action Workshop:

“The attacks on our election have already started, and they're deeply tied to the attacks on our communities. This hands-on workshop will prepare you for what it means to take action to defend our elections and our communities, while fighting for a better future.

We will dive into what's going on right now, the power we have to stop it, and practice some of those skills together. Expect to move around, to meet other members, and to join us for follow up actions as we prepare to enforce the election results and build a future of dignity for all.

No experience required to join.”

- Creative Action Workshop:

“Join us for a hands-on collaborative workshop in designing and implementing creative actions designed to build people power and make real change.

Across history, from the lunch counter sit-ins and the Montgomery bus boycott to street theatre and mutual aid, creativity has driven real change. It's up to us to experiment, to think outside of the box, and to develop direct nonviolent actions that spark change.

We will pull from historical examples, analyze targets and tactics, and use this time to think creatively about what our movement can do. Then, we will put them into action together.

Whether you've been an activist for decades or you're just now joining the fight, this workshop is for you.”

- Nonviolent Protest Tactics Training

“Get Ready for Strategic Nonviolent Action in These Times

Learning from the history of people powered movements, particularly the labor movement, we can root our work today in the rich traditions that have come before.

We have been fighting for a true multiracial democracy since this country was born, and the forces we are up against are strong.

This workshop will ignite your imagination of what is possible, prepare your body, mind, and spirit for what is ahead, and will help build courage and confidence to take the action needed when our democracy, rights and lives are under attack.

Light snacks and pizza provided. Feel free to bring additional food to eat during breaks.”

Subject: Get Trained, Get Ready

Hello,

The attacks on our elections and our communities are already here, and we're gearing up to meet the moment. Four hands-on trainings this week. No experience required for any of them, just show up ready to learn and move.

Election Response Action Workshop

Aug 29 or Sept 1

The attacks on our elections are deeply tied to the attacks on our communities. This workshop breaks down what's happening right now, the power we have to stop it, and gets you practicing real skills alongside other members — plus connects you to the follow-up actions ahead.

RSVP Sep 1: <https://www.mobilize.us/handsoffnyc/event/1008347/>

Creative Action Workshop — Sept 3

From lunch counter sit-ins to street theatre and mutual aid, creativity has always driven real change. We'll pull from history, break down targets and tactics, and think outside the box together, then put our ideas into action. For lifelong activists and first-timers alike.

RSVP: <https://www.mobilize.us/handsoffnyc/event/1010555/>

Nonviolent Protest Tactics Training (NVDA) — Sept 5

Rooted in the traditions of the labor movement and generations of people-powered organizing, this training preps your body, mind, and spirit for what's ahead, and builds the courage and confidence to act when our democracy is under attack. Light snacks and pizza provided.
