REMINDERS:

1. The schedules indicated above were finalized based on the available schedule of the assigned instructor and the availability of the enrolled students. As such, the schedule is considered final and shall no longer be subject to adjustment.
2. In cases where the special class schedule conflicts with specialized or major courses, internship duties, or other academic requirements, students are advised to coordinate with their respective home departments to determine whether internal schedule adjustments may be arranged. Such coordination shall be undertaken to allow the student to attend the special class according to its approved schedule.
3. FIL 102: Panitikan ng Pilipinas shall be converted into a regular class since the number of enrolled students has exceeded the minimum requirement of ten (10). The class shall be handled by Ms. Veronica Jane Javier and will be conducted every Monday from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m at C2-503.
