

Sarah J. Anderson - Library CHOICE Board

Please select an activity to complete this week. If you want to do more than one...go for it. Please email me if you have questions: jessica.odhiambo@vansd.org

Week of: April 8th - April 14th

Choice #1- Read a Book	Read your library book or any book you have in your house. Reading is already awesome but to make it even more fun consider... <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Calling/video chatting a friend or family member to surprise them with a story.• Read to a pet (don't be offended if your pet doesn't seem too interested!)• Is it a beautiful day? Take your book outside and read while getting some fresh air. April Reading Log - you can print this or 'make a copy' and add it to your Google Drive so that you can edit it
Choice #2- Explore an Online Resource	I am attaching the link to some of the websites we use in school. Some of these sites have wonderful stories that you can enjoy online while others are databases that you can use to discover even more about topics that you are interested in. Please do not publicly post the passwords for these sites. SJA Online Resources
Choice #3- Library Skills Worksheet	Below are library-skills based worksheets that you can print and complete or just complete them on a sheet of paper. K-2nd: Parts of a Book Activity - Review. Each part of a book has a name. 3rd-5th: Dewey Decimal Practice - Review. Nonfiction books are separated by the subject (what the book is about) of the book. Each subject has numbers assigned to it.
Choice #4- Scholastic Learn at Home	Scholastic has released a series of really interesting at-home lessons. They are sorted by grade level. Bookflix is usually a paid subscription, but it is temporarily free to support all of our students at home (just choose your grade then follow the instructions). The activities are available in Spanish or English. Scholastic Learn at Home
Choice #5- Take a Poetry Walk and Write an Acrostic Poem	April is National Poetry Month. Poetry is a type of literature that tries to stir your imagination or emotions. Poets choose and arrange words based on meaning, sound, and rhythm. Take a poetry walk with your family. Pay attention to the sights, sounds, smells, and textures of things outside. Write an acrostic poem using the word Spring. Find more information here.

The Nook

* A good fit or just right book is a book that is not too easy or too difficult, but "just right"
