

CARP Education Program

Proposed Lecture Manual

Chapter One: The Sexual Revolution

- The Sixties
- The Pill: sex without commitment
- Roe vs. Wade
- Rise in divorce
- Family breakdown
- Sex education
- HIV-AIDS

Chapter Two: The New Sexual Ideology

- Sigmund Freud
- Margaret Sanger and Planned Parenthood
- Albert Kinsey
- Hugh Hefner and Playboy: the mainstreaming of pornography

Chapter Three: Sexual Politics

- Politics of resentment
- Abortion debate
- LGBT rights
- Definition of marriage
- Activist courts

Chapter Four: The Era of Big Government

- New Deal (1930s) and Great Society (1960s)
- Creation of a welfare (entitlement) society
- The 'evil' of business: class struggle renewed
- Tax policy
- The growing deficit

Chapter Five: Confusion in the Western Value System

- Religious and humanist traditions
 - Reformation and Renaissance
 - Great Awakening and Enlightenment
- American Revolution and Founding Principles
- Social injustice and the role of religion
 - De Tocqueville
 - Abolitionist movement
 - Suffrage movement
 - Civil rights movement
 - LGBT rights movement: in the same tradition?
- Value confusion in Western society

Incompatibility of the new sexual ideology with Christian values

Chapter Six: Introduction to the CARP Worldview

Worldview I: General Overview of Godism

- Principle Overview: Creation, Fall, History of Restoration
- Struggle between good and evil

Worldview II: God vs. No God

- Science and religion
- Atheist viewpoint: Hitchens, Harris, Dawkins
- Counterproposal based on truth and absolute values

Worldview III: Counterproposal to the New Sexual Ideology

- Sex is not a need but a desire
- Freedom and responsibility
- Purpose of freedom
- Fallacy of sexual orientation
- Sexual purity and character development
- Sex, commitment and children
- New sexual ideology destroys marriage, family and society

Worldview IV: CARP's View of Human Beings

- Spiritual nature of human beings
- Human beings are in the image of God
- Human beings are eternal
- Three stages of life

Worldview V: Overall Conclusion

- CARP stands for change
- Process of change: spiritual awakening, change in values, internal revolution
- Towards an ideal society

Worldview VI: Practical Applications of the CARP Worldview

Worldview VII: CARP Outreach

- Network of people
- Network of organizations
- Utilizing social media
- Youtube
- TED-type talks