Refund Policy

At Aquarius Capital Co. Inc., operating under the Rebekah Lumley brand, we are committed to providing high-quality educational resources, coaching services, digital products, and customer support.

Please read this Refund Policy carefully before making a purchase.

By purchasing any product or service through www.rebekahlumley.com, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to this Refund Policy.

Coaching, Consulting, and One-on-One Services

All coaching, consulting, mentoring, strategy sessions, assessments, voice-note support, and other one-on-one services are non-refundable.

Your purchase reserves dedicated time, preparation, expertise, and availability that cannot be recovered once booked or delivered.

Missed appointments, cancellations, or changes requested by the client do not qualify for a refund unless otherwise agreed to in writing.

In-Person Services

Fees paid for in-person consultations, coaching sessions, workshops, or other in-person services are non-refundable.

If Aquarius Capital Co. Inc. must cancel or reschedule an in-person service due to unforeseen circumstances, reasonable efforts will be made to reschedule the service or provide an alternative solution.

Digital Products

We stand behind the quality of our digital products and want every customer to receive value from their purchase.

If, within 30 days of your purchase, you can demonstrate that you have made a genuine and reasonable effort to fully implement the recommendations, strategies, and action steps contained within the digital product, yet did not achieve the intended outcome, you may request a full refund.

To be eligible for a refund, you must provide reasonable documentation demonstrating that you have substantially completed and implemented the program or digital product as instructed. Depending on the product, this documentation may include completed worksheets, action plans, progress logs, photographs, screenshots, journal entries, tracking records, or other evidence reasonably requested by Aquarius Capital Co. Inc.

Refund requests must be submitted in writing within 30 calendar days of the original purchase date.

Aquarius Capital Co. Inc. reserves the right to review each refund request individually and determine whether the eligibility requirements have been satisfied. Refunds will not be issued where there is insufficient evidence that the program or product was substantially completed and implemented.

Refunds are limited to the original purchase price paid for the eligible digital product and will be issued using the original payment method whenever reasonably possible.

Technical Issues

If you experience a technical issue that prevents you from accessing a purchased digital product or service, please contact us as soon as reasonably possible.

We will make reasonable efforts to resolve legitimate technical issues and restore your access.

Technical assistance does not, by itself, constitute grounds for a refund.

Payment Plans

If a payment plan is offered, you agree to complete all scheduled payments according to the payment agreement.

Entering into a payment plan is a commitment to purchase the full program or service and does not create a monthly subscription that may be cancelled without fulfilling the remaining payment obligations, unless otherwise required by applicable law or agreed to by Aquarius Capital Co. Inc. in writing.

Chargebacks

If you have any concerns regarding your purchase, we encourage you to contact us first so we can work toward a fair resolution.

We reserve the right to provide documentation to payment processors demonstrating your purchase, acceptance of these Terms of Service, delivery of products or services, and any communications relating to your refund request or account.

Consumer Rights

Nothing in this Refund Policy limits or excludes any rights or remedies that cannot be excluded under applicable consumer protection laws.

Where applicable law requires a refund or provides additional consumer rights, those rights will apply.
