recipe from: adapted from Pampered Chef

Here's what you need:

- 1 Lb. Ground beef
- 1/4 cup yellow onion, chopped
- 1/4 cup ketchup
- 2 tsp. yellow mustard
- 3/4 cup cheddar cheese, shredded
- 2 packages crescent rolls

Preheat oven to 375 degrees.

In medium skillet brown ground beef and onion until done, about 10 minutes; using a fork to break up the meat.

Add cheese, ketchup, and mustard and mix well.

Arrange triangles in a circle on a round baking stone or a baking sheet lined with parchment with wide ends of triangles overlapping in the center and points toward the outside. Smush with your fingers the inside pieces of the crescents where they overlap to seal together. There should be a 6" circle in the center of the baking stone.

Using medium scoop or a spoon, scoop meat mixture evenly onto the widest part of each triangle.

Bring points of triangles up over the filling and tuck under the wide ends of dough at center of ring. Bake for 20 - 25 minutes or until a deep golden brown.

Recipe serves 6 - 8

Enjoy!
