3. Flipgrid of Your Favorite Poem

- April is National Poetry Month!
- Find a poetry book at your house or use this link, <https://www.poetry4kids.com/#>, to search for a funny poem that represents you. Write the poem on a piece of paper so you can read it in your Flipgrid video.
- Upload a video of yourself reading your poem of choice to <https://flipgrid.com/fox3754>. Make sure you say the title of the poem and the author's name at the beginning of your video! Feel free to incorporate members of your family, costumes, or props into your poetry video to jazz it up!

*Everyone has to upload a poetry flipgrid video! However, these videos will not post live. I will watch them first and approve them before they are posted. Please say, “Mrs. Fox, please don’t post this!” before reading your poem if you do not want it to be shared.

*Keep in mind that these will not post right away once you have submitted your video. Please only submit it once. It will appear when I’ve had time to approve the videos.

4. You are done!

- I will take a look at your essay map and video either today or tomorrow. I may ask for you to make changes to your work or video chat with me if I feel like we need to talk together to beef up your ideas or organization. If you don’t hear back from me then it means your map and video are good to go for the week!
