

GEORGIA INNOCENCE PROJECT

20th Anniversary Scavenger Hunt

Welcome to the Georgia Innocence Project 20th Anniversary Scavenger Hunt! The answers to the questions in this hunt can be found in-person at the Jimmy Carter Library and Museum until September 30th, 2022. Once complete, email a picture of your completed scavenger hunt with your contact information at the bottom of the page by to receive a prize in the mail!

Email to:

gip@georgiainnocenceproject.org

subject line: 20th Anniversary Scavenger Hunt

- Calvin C. Johnson, Jr., the first person in Georgia ever to be exonerated post-conviction by DNA evidence, said this following his release from prison.
Answer: _____
- Who was wrongly convicted after being misidentified in the same lineup with the actual perpetrator of the crime he was convicted of?
Hint: visit website
Answer: _____
- According to the National Registry of Exonerations, this wrongful conviction factor happens in 24% of exoneration cases involving DNA.
Answer: _____
- What is the probability that Black jurors were removed for race-neutral reasons in the Johnny Gates trial?
Answer: _____
- This database continually cross-references DNA collected from crime scenes with DNA collected from people who have been convicted of crimes.
Answer: _____
- How many State Farm Arenas filled to maximum capacity would it take to seat the 87,000 people currently interacted in Georgia's jails and prisons?
Answer: _____
- This law firm, founded in 1885, teamed up with GIP to free Dennis Perry in 2020.
Answer: _____
- Georgia is only one of how many states that do not have a universal compensation statute to ensure financial justice for wrongful convictions?
Answer: _____

Name _____

Address _____

Email _____

If you are a student that is completing this scavenger hunt for a class, what is your teacher's name and school?
