Inquiry Questions	Post card quote	Lit. Circle Book	"What Are You Afraid Of?"	"Conquering Fear"	Newsela article	"Risk Taking is Free" (poem)	"I Look at the World" (poem)
How can freedoms be gained through taking risks?
Why do people knowingly take dangerous risks?
Are some risks worth taking no matter the consequences?
How is breaking away from your cultural traditions a risk?
Which risks are necessary and which risks are not?
Can change occur without risk?
How do culture, identity, and tradition guide the choice to take a risk?
Does oppression necessitate risk-taking?
Why do people take risks?
For what freedoms are we willing to take a risk?
Do we need to have a noble motivation to take a risk?
How do the risks we take reflect our maturity and experience?

QUESTION:
ANSWER:	ANSWER:				