Homework Assignment for Parents – English Class

Ms. Jennifer Pust

jpust@smmusd.org

I truly want your child to be successful and firmly believe that a strong teacher-parent relationship is the first step in making that happen. With this in mind, I am giving parents the opportunity to begin the school year with this OPTIONAL homework assignment: write to me about your child.

This assignment is voluntary on your part and will not affect your child's grade in my class. However, I have found that I learn many interesting things about my students through these letters, so I strongly encourage you to complete this.

The assignment is simple: in a thousand words or fewer, tell me what you think is important for me to know about your child.

Like all good assignments, there needs to be a due date; therefore, I would like your homework turned in by September 7th so that I have a chance to read it before we meet on Back to School Night on Thursday, September 15th. You may either send it in with your child or e-mail it to me at jpust@smmusd.org.

I look forward to a wonderful year together, and to seeing you on September 15th!
