

Reflect On Your Growth As a Writer

Before you write Advanced Essay #4, think about aspects of your writing that are strong and areas where you can improve. Open your three previous advanced essays. Read over the essays and the feedback you received. Choose two excerpts where you are doing something interesting or important in your writing and two excerpts where there is something you could improve.

In the text box, paste the excerpts along with your explanation of what is interesting/important and what could be improved. Explanations should be a short paragraph that clearly explains your thinking and reflections on the excerpt.
