

Kongjwi and Patjwi Worksheet

Name:

Philosophical questions to think about:

1. Is it better to be kind even when others treat you badly? Why or why not?

2. Do good people always get rewarded in the end? Why do you think that is a common theme in folktales?

3. If you were Kongjwi, how would you have handled Patjwi's cruelty?

Quiz Time

1. What kind of person was Kongjwi?
 - A. Lazy and jealous
 - B. Kind and hardworking
 - C. Rich and proud
 - D. Clever but tricky

2. What did Patjwi do to Kongjwi?
 - A. Helped her with chores
 - B. Treated her as an equal
 - C. Bullied and overworked her
 - D. Gave her gifts

3. Who helped Kongjwi with the impossible tasks?
- A. Her stepmother
 - B. A fairy and magical animals
 - C. Her real mother
 - D. The village chief
4. What happened to Kongjwi in the end?
- A. She ran away from home
 - B. She was punished with Patjwi
 - C. She married a nobleman and lived happily
 - D. She opened a shop
5. What is the moral of the story?
- A. Hard work is not always enough
 - B. Jealousy wins in the end
 - C. Kindness and patience are rewarded
 - D. Magic solves all problems

Answer: B C B C C