

I Can Statements

I Can:

- Describe how mutations are passed to offspring and the separation of alleles in gamete formation.
- Model the genotypes and phenotypes of offspring given a set of alleles from their parents.
- Explain dominant, recessive, codominant, and incomplete dominance and relate genotype and phenotype differences in each situation.