Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum Field Trips 2026-27 Updated 8/24/26

The Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum (DHHRM) partners with RISD to offer 6th grade students and chaperones free admission to the museum. Sixth grade SS TEKS align with the educational component of the Museum. RISD students will tour the permanent exhibits unless special considerations are made with RISD and the museum for temporary exhibits.

If there is a conflict for the date, please let karlene.jolly@risd.org know by September 5. Per museum policy, cancellations within 4 weeks of the scheduled trip accrue a $100 fee for the campus.

Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum Field Trip Checklist

Registering for the Experience:

- Communicate the date with your administrator and exec.
- The lead teacher will be the contact person for the museum.
- Buses: Each campus exec will requisition the buses. Bus Requisition Information for execs.
- Registration: This form must be completed by the campus lead teacher in order to be fully registered:
  - 2. DHHRM When completing the Museum Form, select your school, confirm your date. Assign a contact for the field trip who will be with the students. Select social studies and Upstander Program on the Transportation Form.. For questions, email Susan Stringfellow at sstringfellow@dhhrm.org.
- Permission Slips - Required prior to the trip. Take the permission slips on the day of the trip.

Editable permission slip English. and Spanish (English & Spanish)	Amharic Arabic	Pashto Urdu	Vietnamese

  - Invite all (applicable) 6th grade students on your campus to attend.
  - Please note students who can and cannot complete the post trip survey.

Chaperones:

- The museum requires 1 chaperone for every 10 students. Anyone not an RISD employee must be approved through the RISD Volunteer System. Chaperones may ride the bus with a verified background check. The final decision for having chaperones ride the bus is a campus decision.
- Provide chaperones with a list of students in their group. Share cell phone numbers with chaperones.

Lunch at Venue:

- The museum patio is automatically reserved as a rotation for groups when you register at the link above.
- The choice to bring a lunch or order from the cafeteria is on the permission slip. Cafeteria lunches must be ordered at least 2 weeks in advance using the district lunch form.
- Label boxes/bins of lunches with campus name & teacher or chaperone name.
- Write student names on lunches. You can include the teacher and or chaperone name.

Student Safety:

- Contact the museum for any special student needs (ambulatory, hearing, vision, etc.)
- Nurses prepare first aid kits and review with teachers any medical instructions or medication.

Instruction/Lessons: Prepare students for the experience prior to the visit. Holocaust study is a very sensitive subject and the appropriateness of material for students must be reviewed before using in class.

Teachers are responsible for previewing all materials before using them in class.

- DHHRM Teacher's Guide
- DHHRM Upstander Education Database (register to get many materials)
- New! DHHRM Student Exhibition Guide - make copies to bring with pencils
- Student Tour Guidelines
- Optional Resources Holocaust Remembrance Week
