Tacki Hourly Stream Guide

Last Edited
10/23/23

About Me: Hey there, I'm Tacki the red dragon hatchling! I've been a babyfur as long as I've been a furry. I've been at the art game since I could pick up a pen. You've found me at a stage where I've massed together enough confidence to start offering my art services in the form of hourly art streams! Hello new customer-kun!

I specialize in cute furry/babyfur/ABDL art (all together, not separate!) and I pretty much draw all content in that area. I stay away from some of the more hardcore themes in art like sexual and nudey stuff (no shade if you like that, I just don't draw it). I like interacting and hanging out with my community while I draw, which is why I like the hourly stream format best!

"Can I ask you to draw other topics?"

You may ask... and the answer is YES! If you feel I can do your idea justice in a limited time and it's not against my TOS, then I will happily draw it for you!

I. Terms of Service

I give everyone a chance to commission art from me. I do reserve the right to refuse service to anyone for any reason. You have the right to not commission me as well!

I do not accept commissions from people who

- Advocate for violence or abuse against vulnerable and/or marginalized communities or ethnic groups
- Engage in bullying, calling-out, doxxing, harassing, blackmailing, trolling, or ostracizing others because of their sex, gender, ethnicity, race, religion, sexual orientation, mental health, or lifestyle
- Actively and knowingly spread misinformation about marginalized groups, controversial topics, and historical events

General Rules

- Must be 18+ to commission art from me. No exceptions!
- Must have clear and easy to understand OC references available
- Must be able to pay through PayPal at, or before the agreed upon time
- Must be able to communicate your ideas clearly in chat or through a google doc
- NSFW References are okay to send, though I prefer SFW.
- All characters must be your own OCs OR you must have permission from the owners of OCs that don't belong to you. Permission must be a screenshot of the other person's consent in some form or fashion.

II. Guide and Examples

First Things First!:

Finish reading this TOS!

How to buy a time slot:

Contact me through any social media platform and ask what's available. I usually make posts and journals indicating open time slots.

I got a time slot... now what?:

1. You'll be sent a google form. Open it and fill out the form. Make sure to read each prompt carefully!
2. Agree on how/when to pay for your slot. Payments are only accepted through Paypal either before or after the stream depending on how well I know you. Please click on the link or accept the invoice for payment.
3. Have my contact info handy in case you have any questions, comments, or concerns.

Tips:

Consider the following details and organize them accordingly when explaining what you want me to draw:

1. Mood/Vibe
2. Body type, age, height (especially compared to other characters in the commission)
3. Markings, details, unique bodily anatomy, accessories, etc. that are commonly missed by other artists or are important to get right!
4. Anything not seen in your references that you want included (consider a reference picture of those things)
5. Outfit and/or style

I don't have a ref... x..x

That's alright. I can work with that if you're flexible. Send me a good visual description and, optionally, any sort of visual references of what you want that you can. I'll do my best!

Examples:

1 hour Stream A: 1 fully finished single character pic, shaded and highlighted with semi simple background and 1 simple sketch.

1 hour Stream B: Flat colored single character, complex props, background sketch

III. Pricing and Cancellations

Pricing: Commissioners may purchase a 1 hour time slot for $25.00, or 2 hours for $50.00!

Depending on how well I know you, you may have the opportunity to pay AFTER I finish your work. Please do not abuse this privilege should you receive it.

All payments MUST be made through paypal.

- Pay as "Product/Services"
- Do not mention anything NSFW or Kink related in description
- Buyer must be 18 years or older

Refunds and Cancellations

Let me know before your stream begins that you need to cancel. The sooner the better. I am willing to offer 100% refunds under the following conditions:

- A. I am unable to start your stream at the agreed upon time. Please allow a grace period of 15 minutes or so. (you will, of course, receive your full art stream time period)
- B. Technical Difficulties on stream prevent me from finishing your commission to your tastes
- C. My skill is inadequate to the quality of work you expected
 1. Please note, that if you receive a refund for the art I do for you, you forfeit the rights to the images drawn and may not use or post them in any form or fashion.
 2. If you have already posted the work and still expect a refund, then I will refuse to accept it.
 3. Commissioners who abuse my refund policy will be banned from any future opportunities to receive art from me.

IV. Will Draw/Won't Draw

Content Areas: Below is a list of things I will draw, and things I won't. Consultations are free. If I don't feel comfortable drawing your idea, I'll let you know immediately. If I don't draw your kink, don't be offended. My preferences are not meant as an attack against what you like.

WILL DRAW:

Babyfur

ABDL content

General SFW furry artwork

General SFW human art

Used diapers

Leaky diapers and blowouts

Historical and military content

Pokemon, digimon, and other characters (Fan or not)

WON'T DRAW:

Nudity (specifically genitals)

Sexual situations

Visible scat (non diaper related) or vomit

Right wing paraphernalia or propaganda*

Right wing political symbols (such as flags and icons)*

Hate art

Right wing includes (but is not limited to) MAGA, pro-ethnostate, pro-theocracy, and/or fascist content in direct reference to real world parties, ideologies, and politics. Like any of my “won’t draws,” ask me beforehand if you’re not sure.*

This list may update and change at my whim.*

POSTING

You may upload the art wherever you wish. I reserve the right to upload the art to any platform I wish as well. Please credit me when you upload your piece on any of the sites you deem appropriate. I reserve the right to upload or remove the images I do for you from my platforms for whatever reason. Thank you for your understanding! Do NOT remove my signature from any art you get from me, unless it is for the purpose of a profile pic.

EDITS

I'm willing to make edits as needed up to one month after I've sent you the "finished" piece for an agreed upon price. If I got a major detail wrong that is present in any reference you sent to me, I will do the edits for free. Please get back to me with what you need fixed ASAP. High cost edits would include completely redoing the linework. Simple edits include fixing fur patterns, shapes for horns, small details and other things.

AI ART

Do NOT use my artwork for use in any AI generated content or programs without my expressed consent. This includes work that you commissioned from me! Of course, I can't stop you, but if I find out you're doing this, you will be blocked from interacting with me or purchasing my work for the foreseeable future.
