

RELIGION 9-2 HOMEWORK PAGE

Google Classroom code: j5xqcpuf

Wed, Sept 3rd

Students participated in a reflection called an examen. Students then began a unit on Identity, which they started by creating alter egos for their teacher and then themselves.

Mon, Sept 8th

Students identified and shared facets of their identities including talents, interests, and values. No homework.

Thu, Sept 11th

Students learned about and shared more facets of their identities including their goals, family values, and important memories. No homework.

Fri, Sept 12th.

Students completed their notes on identity traits and began rough drafts to illustrate their identity leaf projects. Students are to bring in laptops, leads, and other tools they need to complete their projects on Monday, Sept 15th.

Fri, Sept 26th

The class discussed reconciliation, learned about survivors of Canadian residential schools, and wrote reflections that focused on the importance of apologies and forgiveness, why it can be hard to do either, and who we can turn to for advice.

Wed, Oct 15th

Students rehearsed and performed dramatic skits dealing with the resolution of conflicting values. No homework.

Mon, Oct 20th

Students found biblical quotes related to strength and weakness, and shared their strengths.

Fri, Oct 24th

Students reflected on their strengths and weaknesses and how to positively impact others.

Wed, Oct 29th

Students learned the story of David and Goliath in relation to strength, weakness, and faith.