Check out my work here:

- Archive of Our Own
- Carrd: my previous commissions and zine experiences are listed here!
- Portfolio

Check out my work queue here.

- I WILL WRITE -

- Pieces
 - One shots and multi-chapter fics
Multi-chaptered fics don't need to be paid for at once. You can commission me per chapter if you'd like.
 - Character sheets
Including but not limited to character studies, lore, and descriptions. You can also commission only one or some of these. Also includes DnD character sheets.
 - Journal entries and letters
- Fanfiction and original content
 - Fanwork: you can check my interests here.
If your fandom isn't listed, feel free to ask me privately about it. You can still order a commission even if I'm unfamiliar with the media, but please make sure your prompt is detailed.
 - Original content:
This includes canon x OC pairings and yume ships, character sheets for your tabletop RPGs,
 - Straight and LGBTQ+ pairings.
 - Monoamorous and polyamorous pairings.
- SFW and NSFW
 - Kinks may be discussed privately as long as they aren't blacklisted.
- Preferred genres and themes
 - Fantasy, romance, slice-of-life.
 - AUs, fluff, angst.

- I WON'T WRITE -

- Homophobia, transphobia, antisemitism, nazism, racism, ableism, similar bigotry.
- Fiction consisting of real people (e.g. actors, athletes, idols).
- Genres and themes:
 - Horror, thriller.
 - Gore, vore, cannibalism, scat.

Others may be discussed privately.

- PRICE LIST -

For local customers: Rp. 75.000 per 1.000 words

- an extra Rp. 25.000 if you don't want the writing to be published
 - an extra Rp. 25.000 for every extra additional revision
- Please refer to Process & Form for the maximum number of revisions you can request.

For international customers: $15 USD per 1.000 words

- Payment through: BCA, OVO, Shopeepay or Paypal.
As an international customer, you can choose to pay through BCA, OVO, or QRIS, but the price will not change.
- Half of the payment is required before I start writing, the other half right before I send the complete work to you and post the writing.
- I will send a preview of the piece before you have to make a full payment.
- If I write more than 1000 words from what we agreed on, I will not charge you more than the initial agreement.

- TERMS AND CONDITIONS -

Please make sure to read thoroughly.

- Everything will be written in English.
- No commercial use is allowed for fanfics.
- Do not claim the commission as your own writing.
- Let me know ASAP if you would like to cancel.

If the work is already complete, I will take no refunds.

- The writing will be sent to you as a Google Drive containing .pdf and .docx files. You can also request for the AO3 link.
- Writings will be published on my AO3 and Wix.
- The time it takes to finish the commission will vary, but I will give you updates every step of the way.
- Regarding revisions

I ONLY ACCEPT REVISIONS THAT FOLLOW THE ORIGINAL PROMPT.

- As I have gotten revision requests that caused me to restart pieces from scratch due to ambiguous and incomplete prompts, I am now prohibiting revisions that deviate from the original prompt.

If you still insist on requesting those revisions

- halfway through the process: I might drop the commission and refund you.
- once the piece is already done: I will not refund you.
- Please make sure that the prompt you send in the form is as detailed as possible.
 - If your fandom isn't one that I'm familiar with, please make sure to add any relevant details to the prompt.
 - If it's original content, I would appreciate it if you send me character sheets, artwork, and anything that you think would help with the writing process.
- If you don't have anything in mind, feel free to refer to the prompt list or give me an ambiguous prompt with an open mind.
e.g. "(pairing) fluff" or "(pairing) mermaid AU" are fine, but don't request me to start over when the piece is not to your liking even though it follows the prompt you gave.
- I have the right to refuse commissions for any reason.
- By commissioning me, you agree to all of my listed rules.

Chickens to Warm the Heart

Ohiya buat thoughts and commentsnya, menurut gue lu udah bisa mengcapture character setiap tokoh dengan baik, walau lu ga suka jg ttp I can see you researched their characters before making the story. Gue juga ga expect sih bakal ngasih chicken gitu atau, kek, you even thought about giving live chickens in the first placr.

Notes:

- You can order a commission with these prompts and/or change them to your heart's content.
- You can use these prompts yourself, but if you are inspired by this list, please inform me because I'd like to see the results. Credits are very appreciated, but not required.
- A, B, C, etc are character placeholders.

- soulmate au -

A is deaf in one ear, yet one day, when B leans in and whispers into that ear, A can hear them perfectly.

- game au -

The horror and tragedy of being NPCs in a game, having to die and revive over and over again.

- cinderella au -

A, thanks to their fairy godmother, has the chance to be the opposite sex until the clock strikes 12.

- others -

To save their life, A has to consume the immortality potion which also purges the heart, sparing no feelings be it love or hatred.

“Don't worry, B. I will love you even after I drink this,” but A's promise is broken.

1. Somehow, A falls in love with B once more, but this feeling cancels out the potion, and A passes away.
2. B is forgotten, but they won't give up! They will continue courting A, whether A likes it or not.

- others -

In the heavens where the immortals reside:

A: “I'm depressed.”

B: “Even so, you must continue living.”

A: “Says who?”

A: (jumps off a cliff)

B: “...”
