- f. Membership allows an individual to qualify and receive year end awards in all shows and programs.

F. Inhumane Treatment

- a. No person shall treat any horse in an inhumane manner. This prohibition against inhumane treatment applies to CCBA members and nonmembers.
- b. For purposes of this rule, a person responsible for the care of a horse is also responsible for and may be disciplined for the inhumane conduct of their trainers, agents, representatives and employees. For violation of this rule, an individual may be disciplined, suspended, fined, disqualified, expelled from show grounds and/or expelled from CCBA.
- c. CCBA may also temporarily suspend an individual charged or indicted pursuant to state, federal, provincial or international law for an offense of cruelty or inhumane treatment of a horse, whether or not the equine in question has a connection to CCBA or not. Such temporary suspension will remain in place or may pending the outcome of the legal proceedings made basis of the charge or indictment and may become permanent at that time.
- d. Inhumane treatment of any horse or any other animal on show grounds is strictly prohibited. Treatment of any horse will be considered inhumane if the show steward, or a person, educated or experienced in accepted equine training techniques, would perceive the conduct of an individual to be inhumane.
- e. A list of suspended individuals will be emailed to each affiliate association as they are updated.

G. Unsportsmanlike Conduct

- a. Any form of misconduct that is irresponsible, illegal, indecent, profane, intimidating, threatening or abusive is prohibited. This provision applies to CCBA members, affiliate association members, nonmembers, exhibitors, trainers, owners, owner representatives, spectators and all other persons on the show grounds or at a CCBA event.
