*Higher Education
Research & Creative
Conference*

When: May 28th-30th

Where: Lone Star College - Kingwood

What is HERCC?

- The purpose of the Higher Education Research & Creative Conference is to provide a forum for scholars, teachers, students, professionals, and others interested in the scholarly inquiry of theatre-related topics.
- Attendees gather to present papers, roundtable discussions, and poster/digital presentations and discuss the ideas set forth as a group, thus creating an opportunity to share ideas and promote scholarship in the academic and professional theatre community.
- While special consideration is given to submissions intersecting with the determined annual theme, scholarly research presentations focusing on any topic relating to all aspects of theatre studies are welcomed.

Who would benefit from attendance?

- Presenters:
 - Researchers
 - Creative Discovery and Development Professionals
 - Higher Education Students
 - All tracks are encouraged
 - Higher Education Faculty and Staff
 - Fine Arts Administrators
 - Future Theatre Educators
