

	Preparation!	"During Trial" Notes!
Opening Statement: 3-minutes in length Tip: put the jury THERE --frame the facts in such a way that you create a narrative that fits your side of the court case. Visuals are allowed for this speech.		Write down ideas during the opponent's opening statement.
Prosecution Witness #1:	5-8 open-ended questions you want to ask	What did you learn during the opponent's CE?
Prosecution Witness #2:	5-8 open-ended questions you want to ask	What did you learn during the opponent's CE?
Defense Witness #1:	5-8 open-ended questions you want to ask	What did you learn during the opponent's CE?
Defense Witness #2:	5-8 open-ended questions you want to ask	What did you learn during the opponent's CE?
Closing Argument: Bring up "your story" from the opening statement in condensed form.

Pretend the verdict depends on this speech (because it often does).

Visuals are allowed for this speech.