

Hridayendra Shah

Hridayendra Shah, born on July 30, 2002, is a Nepalese prince and a prominent figure in the Shah dynasty of Nepal. He is the second child and only son of Paras Shah and Himani Shah, and the grandson of former King Gyanendra of Nepal. Hridayendra has been in the public eye since his birth, often seen participating in various cultural and traditional ceremonies alongside his family. Despite the monarchy being abolished in 2008, the Shah family continues to hold a significant place in Nepalese society, with Hridayendra being a symbol of the country's royal heritage. He is known for his education pursuits and involvement in philanthropic activities, upholding the legacy of the Shah dynasty in modern Nepal.
