✨ Disclaimer & Client Agreement

By booking a session with Stephanie, creator of Prism Light Weaving, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. Prism Light Weaving is a spiritual and energetic modality intended to support self-awareness, energetic balance, and personal transformation. It is a complementary practice and is not a replacement for licensed medical, psychological, or psychiatric care.

2. Stephanie is not a licensed medical or mental health provider. No diagnosis, treatment, or medical advice is given or implied. You are encouraged to seek appropriate professional support for medical, psychological, or psychiatric concerns.

3. Individual results are not guaranteed. Each session is unique and based on your personal energy, openness, and readiness to engage with the process.

4. You are responsible for your own well-being. By participating in a session, you acknowledge that you are assuming full responsibility for your mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual health before, during, and after the session.

5. Legal Jurisdiction: This agreement is governed by the laws of the State of Tennessee. However, by participating in a session, you agree that this disclaimer applies regardless of your location or residence, and consent to its terms as a condition of receiving services.

6. Release of Liability: By continuing with your booking, you voluntarily agree to this disclaimer and release Stephanie and Prism Light Weaving from any and all liability related to your session.
