

Bovard Scholars are high-achieving, resilient and place a high value on education. They show leadership and are ready to take ownership of their academic path to success.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Junior in high school (11th grader) at time of application
- Currently hold a 4.0 weighted GPA or above
- Enrolled in Algebra II, Trigonometry or above
- Demonstrate financial need
- Have taken Advanced Placement/International Baccalaureate courses, if offered
- Actively enrolled in a high school curriculum within the U.S. or U.S. territories

We offer the program at no cost to students or families. USC will pay for transportation to and from campus for students coming from outside of Southern California.

This year, the summer intensive runs from July 10, 2022 through July 30, 2022

If selected, each Bovard Scholar will have one full year of support through the admissions cycle and spend three weeks on the USC campus, where they will receive:

- Personalized career exploration
- Expert admission and financial aid support
- Comprehensive test preparation
- Leadership development

Here's what recent scholars have to say:

"Do not miss out on a wonderful experience. Not only do you leave feeling like you learned so much, but you leave with a huge network of people who care about you, and want you to succeed."

RHONDAYA FISHBURNE

Rhondaya is now a senior at University of Southern California

"It is the best program I have ever attended. Hands down, you are not only with people who are like you, but as driven as you. It's such an amazing experience."

STEPHANIE CORRALES

Stephanie is now a senior at Wesleyan University

"It is amazing to see how many people can be gathered and are willing to share the ins and outs of the college admission process, as well as have the patience to work with us and answer every single question we have about the next big step in our lives."

DIEGO RAMOS

Diego is now a senior at University of Southern California
