ABSTRACT

Concise but at least contain the problem, purpose, method, important findings, and implications of the research. The length of Abstract is 100-250 words.

INTRODUCTION

Introduction: Directing the reader about the importance of the research. Presenting significant problems, a clear state of the art, gap analysis, and novel concepts to fill the gaps. End it with the purpose of research.

Use recent references at least 50 references from international journals (last 10 years), and do not use self-citation.

MATERIALS AND METHODS

Materials and Methods: Clear and replicable. Reveal how the research objectives were achieved with appropriate procedures and stages.

RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

Presenting data based on the right type of research. Presentation of data can be in the form of narrative, table, or an appropriate picture. Then the data is analyzed by comparing the concepts, theories, or results of previous research.

CONCLUSION

Contains the most important research findings related to the objectives written in the introduction.
