Popular Items On Extreme Pizza Menu

Flying High Thai Chicken Salad

I think the Flying High Thai Chicken Salad is just the perfect balance between bold and refreshing flavors. The chicken is grilled until tender, paired with creamy Thai peanut sauce, and topped with crisp greens, peanuts, and fresh cilantro that gives it a satisfying crunch.

The dressing has just the right spice; it heats you a little without getting too intense. What you'd particularly like is the crunch of the greens, which is a refreshing contrast to the richness of the sauce. This salad gives off a vibe that is light and hearty yet enough to be had as a full meal.

Yard Sale

If you love having a variety of toppings on your pizza, I'd recommend the Yard Sale pizza to you. It's topped with almost everything you'd want in a pizza— pepperoni, Italian sausage, salami, black olives, mushrooms, green peppers, onions, and fresh tomatoes. This pizza offers you almost everything in one bite.

The meat has rich and savory flavors, and in a beautiful contrast to it, the veggies provide a nice crunch and balance. The pizza crust— one of the most important things— is just the right amount of thickness; it supports the toppings without being too heavy. Lastly, I have to say this: the toppings of the Yard Sale pizza are quite well thought out.

Extremely Twisted Sticks

Let me tell you this: You will not be able to resist the Extremely Twisted Sticks. These twisted sticks are quite straightforwardly loaded with butter, coated in garlic and cheese, and make just the kind of appetizer that's hard to put down.

Beyond the buttery, cheesy, and garlicky taste, Extremely Twisted Sticks have a crispy exterior and soft insides that give them the perfect balance of crunch and softness. They come with a side of marinara and ranch dressing.

The whole combination makes for a very rich and flavorful dish. They are perfect for sharing, but they are oh so delicious that I can imagine you'd want every stick for yourself!

Boneless

If you like enjoying the deliciousness of wings without being bothered by the hassle of bones, then I suggest that you get the Boneless wings at Extreme Pizza. They will be perfectly crispy on the outside and tender on the inside.

The best part is that you get to choose what kind of sauce you want to have them with. Extreme Pizza's variety of sauces makes everything better.

A lot of people like to enjoy Boneless with buffalo sauce. If you have never tried this combination before, I suggest that you drop everything and do it ASAP. With just the right amount of tangy and spicy, the combination is heavenly.

Ragin' Rooster

If you're in the mood for something bold and zesty, I suggest that you order the Ragin' Rooster pizza. It's topped with grilled chicken, BBQ sauce, red onions, cheddar cheese, cilantro, and jalapeños. This epic combination delivers just the right amount of heat and sweetness in each bite. Can things be any more perfect?

Despite that, I can imagine you like the pizza's richness from the cheddar cheese and red onions. In fact, this unique combination makes Ragin' Rooster one of the standout items on Extreme Pizza's menu.

Classic Cheese Pizza Medium

You can experiment with as many pizzas as you want, but both you and I know that the classic Cheese Pizza will always be comfort food. It's simply one of those pizzas that you'd want to keep going back to even when there are no extravagant flavors.

The pizza's satisfying combination of mozzarella cheese, well-balanced tomato sauce, and generously layered cheese makes each slice extremely satisfying. You see, it's the simplicity of the flavors that make the Classic Cheese Pizza even more appealing.

Drag it Thru the Garden (Vegetarian)

The Drag it Thru the Garden Pizza is a dream come true for people who like vegetarian pizzas. It's loaded with a fresh mix of veggies like artichoke hearts, spinach (!!), sun-dried tomatoes, onions, mushrooms, and garlic. As you can imagine, this pizza is full of vibrant, earthy, and feel-good flavors.

The artichokes and sun-dried tomatoes give the pizza its tanginess. The spinach and garlic add savory depth, while the onions and mushrooms complete the fresh, wholesome feel. Honestly, Drag it Thru the Garden seems like a good choice for someone who wants to have their veggies but also enjoy a pizza.

Meatball Parmesan

The Meatball Parmesan sub at Extreme Pizza is going to become your ultimate comfort food sooner rather than later. It features juicy, well-seasoned meatballs, marinara sauce, melted mozzarella, and parmesan cheese. Just imagine how comforting this combination is going to be.

The marinara sauce adds a nice tanginess to the sub that complements the richness of the meatballs, and the melted cheese brings out that perfect creamy texture. The lightly toasted subbread holds the entire combination together and soaks up all the juices of the filling without getting too soggy. So, if you're ever on the lookout for something warm and filling, I suggest that you get this sub.

Endless Summer

The Endless Summer pizza is a refreshing and unique combination of various ingredients—the ones you'd not have expected to have on a pizza. There is shredded chicken, mandarin oranges, pine nuts, caramelized onions, and a light BBQ drizzle.

The mandarin oranges add sweetness, and the BBQ sauce gives the whole deal a smoky flavor. The pine nuts provide the pizza with a nice crunch, whereas the caramelized onions offer their subtle sweetness. This is why I say the pizza captures both savory and sweet elements in a balanced way, offering a lot of flavor in each bite.
