

Now hiring: Interim Program Associate, 4-H Youth Development

Full-time (40 hours/week)

Wage is $21.00/hour with additional compensation based on experience.

Who are we?

4-H Youth Development is a part of an outreach arm of the University of Minnesota, making a difference by connecting community needs and University resources. Minnesota 4-H fosters vibrant, sustainable and resilient communities by building a force of engaged young people who are ready to learn and lead. We do this by creating experiences to develop youth as skilled communicators, innovators, and problem-solvers.

What will you do?

The Interim Program Associate manages the day to day coordination and delivery of local 4-H programming. In this role you will:

- Ensure risk and financial management policies are followed.
- Maintain and ensure accessibility and quality to a youth audience through a full range of 4-H experiences (community, site based, project clubs).
- Coordinate youth and volunteer involvement in 4-H Youth Development programs.
- Promote and market the 4-H youth development program.

Review the full job description (z.umn.edu/interimapp).

Who's right for the job?

We seek passionate and dynamic leaders whose vision is to see all Minnesota youth thrive!

We are looking for candidates with a high school diploma and one year full time experience leading, teaching or managing youth programs. Experience may include a combination of employment, volunteer leadership and experience in youth development programs.

To be considered for this position, apply (z.umn.edu/interimapp) and complete an intake survey to determine location, position and availability requirements (z.umn.edu/interimscreening).

Questions can be directed to Kate Holland, 4-H Interim Hires and Onboarding Coordinator, at kharring@umn.edu.